ESTIMATE SHORTAGE IN WINTER WHEAT CROP

CHICAGO, April 19.—With estimates current that the domestic winter crop of wheat this year would be 46,000,000 bushels less than was harvested in 1922 and that Nebraska prospects were for only one third to a half crop, the wheat market today developed fresh strength. Prices closed firm to 1 1/2c net higher, May $1.25 1/2 to $1.26 and July $1.24 1/2 to $1.25 1/2 and 3/4 to 3/8. In provisions the outcome was 1 1/2 to 2 1/2c decline.

Highest prices of the day in the wheat market were attained at reports were out indicating that abandonment of winter wheat plantings this season would total 6,982,000 acres, and would be more than 5 per cent in excess of a ten year average, including the heavy abandonment of 31 per cent in 1917. Besides, word of high sands and dust storms were received from parts of Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma. Predictions of reduced acreage of spring wheat, especially in South Dakota, attracted notice too, although better weather northwest than has prevailed of late counted as something of an offset.

Active buying for eastern account was a feature in the wheat market as the day drew to a close. In this connection it was noted that 700,000 bushels were announced as having been taken for shipment to Europe and that the Liverpool market today had shown unexpected strength owing apparently to a forecast of decreased shipments from Argentina.

On the other hand primary receipts in the United States continued to surpass in the volume the corresponding totals of last year and a year ago.

Corn and oats rose with wheat.
Furthermore, prospects were for continued scantiness of corn receipts here.

Provisions reflected a downward trend in prices at Liverpool.

CASH SALES OF WHEAT SMALL

CHICAGO, April 19.—Wheat closed unchanged to 1/2c lower in price today with trading basis unchanged 1/2c better on red grades and unchanged to 1/2c lower for hard and yellow hard. Spring wheat was unchanged. Cash sales were only 6,000 bushels. The seaboard reported 700,000 bushels of wheat worked for Europe today. Manitoba.

Corn closed unchanged to 1/2c better in price.

Provisions were unchanged to 1/2c higher on mixed grades, unchanged on yellow to 1/2c better on white. Cash sales here were 150, 000 bushels including 25,000 bushels to exporters. The seaboard estimated 200,000 bushels as having been worked for export.

Oats closed unchanged in price

WHERE WAS DEVINE WHEN THE LIGHTS OUT-IS QUESTION

Republicans and Democrats Differ as to Whereabouts

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 20.—Discussion between republicans and democrats on the whereabouts of Devine, the only member of the minority leadership of the short session of the house of representatives this morning, Representative Devine was said by republicans to have been present when the appropriation bill of Rep. Smekal for the state treasurer was read a second time, and democrats said he was absent. The debate started when the democratic leader announced after Smekal bill had been passed on the third reading, that he intended to offer amendments striking out some items, but that he wanted to offer them to a full house. He asked that the bill be sent back to second reading and Speaker Shanahan said he should have made the request at the proper time. Rep. Devine said he was out of the chamber when the bill was called and his statement was sustained by Representatives Igoo, Chicago, and Ben Smith, Pekin, democrats. The speaker and Rep. Smekal declared they had seen Mr. Devine in the chamber while the bill was being read in full, and sharp words passed between Smekal and Igoo.

Speaker Shanahan settled the dispute by saying there was no objection to sending the bill back to second reading. Reporting by the judiciary committee of the seven "wet" measures and one "dry" resolution with unfavorable recommendation was followed by a motion of Rep. Igoo to non-concur in the report. He asked that action on the motion be delayed until his own "wet" bill, introduced Wednesday, is reported from committee. When this is done, a free-for-all wet and dry battle is expected on the house floor.

Rep. Igoo's idea in making his motion is to allow members of the house who are on the judiciary committee to express themselves on the prohibition question.

Approximately 65 of the 152 members were present today, and consequently no bills could be passed. A dozen or so bills and resolutions were advanced to second and third readings.

Rep. McCarthy, republican, Elgin, took the floor on a question of personal privilege and denied a news story in a Chicago morning paper to the effect that he and one of the alleged members of the "farm bloc" would be responsible for the probable defeat of the gateway amendment to the state constitution. He declared he was opposed to all blocs and that he did not belong to one. The judiciary committee reported favorably on a bill of Rep. Haer, republican, Chicago, to authorize the department of public welfare to keep permanent record of information concerning delinquency and identification of felons.

A resolution offered by Rep. Thon, republican, Chicago, commending the work of the weak Walton Tennesse, which is now in session in Chicago was adopted.

The house adjourned at 10:25 out of respect to the late Thomas O'Connor, former fire department chief of Chicago, adopting a memorial resolution presented by Rep. Daley, democrat, Chicago.

MUELHEIM CITIZENS ORGANIZE AGAINST UNEMPLOYED MOBS

Many Casualties as Result of Three Days of Mob Rule

(By The Associated Press)
MUELHEIM, April 20.—The citizens of Muelheim and its vicinity tonight are organizing for self-protection against the unemployed bands which were dispersed this morning from the center of the town and now are assembling in the outskirts.

Armed with axe handles and other improvised weapons, the people of Muelheim are going about the streets ready to repel any further invasion of the town by the redcoats.

The Red Cross society's representatives said that nine or ten persons are dead and seventy wounded in consequence of the three days of mob rule, but this count is not an accurate one inasmuch as those who had besieged the Rathaus and other parts of the town carried away some of their dead and injured. Most of those among the unemployed who were injured were beaten over the head with clubs.

Ten of the defenders of the Rathaus received bullet wounds.

In the suburbs where the bands driven out of the town are gathering it is reported they are holding up pedestrians and plundering. Some of the men entered restaurants and ordered meals and drinks. When the bill was presented a fight was started and Rosenthal was killed and his son shot four times.

German officials assert that most of those engaged in the disorders are communists. About thirty of the leaders have been arrested but some of them are still at large. The officials of both Muelheim and places in this vicinity assert that they intend to take measures tomorrow which will entirely end the communist movement.

FIREMAN LEAPS TO HIS DEATH FROM AN EXHIBITION TOWER

Were Practicing for Demonstration at San Antonio

(By The Associated Press)
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 20.—Trapped by flames in the exhibition tower in the pagoda grounds, two firemen leaped from the blazing structure at 12:10 Friday afternoon, one to his death. Fireman A. G. Flurey was killed. Captain T. F. Martin, No. 1 hook and ladder company is badly injured.

Firemen practicing for a demonstration Friday night set fire to the structure unaware that their fellow firemen were in the structure.

Flurey leaped from the top of the structure as the flames licked the framework about his feet. Hundreds saw the doomed man step into space as the fire raged toward him.

Captain Martin jumped from the third story. His body was burned severely before he jumped. The tower 62 feet high was to have been the scene of a spectacular fire scene Friday night.

Captain Martin, menaced by flames, leaped from the tower at a point 30 feet above the ground.

Fireman Flurey, trapped while at the extreme top of the tower, leaped the full 62 feet.

PRESIDENT WILL EXPLAIN COURT PROPOSAL SOON

Believes People Do Not Understand Intentions

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 20.—Convinced that lack of information is responsible for much of the opposition to the administration plan for American membership in the permanent court of international justice, President Harding is understood to have decided to explain the proposal carefully and in detail at the first favorable opportunity.

The explanation contemplated by the chief executive is expected to take the form of a letter or an address, more probably the latter. In any event it is regarded as unlikely that the presidential pronouncement will be delayed until the proposed western speaking trip to start the middle of June.

Some of the president's advisers are of the opinion that it should be made in the near future and this opinion became more decided after Representative Will R. Wood of Indiana, chairman of the Republican congressional committee during a call at the white house today asserted that the world court proposal had aroused more opposition among republicans in the middle west than the league of nations.

Accepts Invitations

The president has accepted several invitations to make addresses, some of them only tentatively, within the next few weeks. A dozen or more additional invitations have been received and among these it is considered practically certain the executive can find an appropriate occasion to make his explanation.

Mr. Harding was in conference for half an hour with Mr. Root, who was the single American who sat on the commission which drafted the statute outlining the procedure, membership and other details of the international court. The former secretary of state after his conference declined to discuss his conversation with the president beyond saying that he called to pay his respects but it was presumed that the court proposal entered into the discussion.

The conference with Mr. Root was followed by a call at the white house by Secretary Hughes. The state department head saw the president only briefly but it was considered probable that he may have delivered something on the world court proposal requested by the president earlier in the day at the cabinet meeting.

More League Of Nations Propaganda

(By The Associated Press)
GENEVA, April 20.—League of nations officials are chanting a song of victory for in their opinion, league stock is looking up. The Irish Free State applied for membership today, Turkey is coming in when peace is signed at Lausanne and the United States, they say is at least displaying a burning interest in the court of international justice, a child of the league. It is emphasized also that the American people are showing a greatly augmented spirit of investigation into the doings of the league itself.

Ireland's application for membership which was presented today by Michael MacWhite, the Free State's representative in Central Europe is expected to be accepted by the assembly when it meets in September, making the league membership 53 countries. If Egypt as is anticipated, petitions for admission to the league, it will with Turkey make the membership 55 countries.

The Irish announcement was made with something sort of dramatic. MacWhite, appeared and distributed letters.

Ireland's application will be distributed immediately to the members of the league who can admit her by a two-thirds vote at the assembly meeting in the fall.

MacWhite was subjected to a broadside of questions which he answered freely. He insisted that Ireland's admission did not mean she would follow on the trail of England in the league's activities. This statement came in response to a German correspondent who called attention to that Ireland's admission to the league would mean another British vote making seven in all. No objection could be raised by the friends of Ireland in America and elsewhere, MacWhite declared, that admission of Ireland to the league symbolized the strengthening of British control of the league, as the policy of the Irish government was well known that nobody would play the game of England or humbly follow in England's foot steps.

You can be sure all of you that Ireland will pursue an independent policy, he said, repeating it vigorously in French so that the non-English newspapermen would not lose its significance.

MacWhite explained that it was indicated from the start of the treaty negotiations with England that Ireland could join the league.

Mr. Lloyd George had written to Arthur Griffith that he would support such a move.

"Irishmen believe in the league," the envoy added, "if admitted our voice will ever be heard as the sponsor of international justice."

Speaking of internal affairs, he declared the political revolution against the free state government had ended, only bandits were operating. When asked if DeValera had been captured he smiled but made no reply.

REDDING, Cal., April 20.—Lassen Peak, America's only active volcano, burst forth in violent eruption near here just before dark tonight. For miles around great volumes of black smoke could be seen as it issued from the crater. It spouted skyward although a heavy wind was blowing at the time and smoke soon spread over a wide area toward the south.

Altho the mountain has erupted several times recently the blowoff tonight was said to have been the most severe in years. The detonation was heard for miles around. Several reports reached here that a shower of hot rocks fell on small settlements on the base of the mountain but the reports could not be verified tonight.

BODY OF BISHOP DANIEL S. TUTTLE IS LAID TO REST

Thousands View Body As it Lay in State Yesterday

(By The Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 20.—The body of Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle of the Episcopal church rests tonight in Bellefontaine cemetery beside the graves of Miss Tuttle, a son, grandson and mother-in-law. Thousands of persons streamed past the bier this afternoon as the body lay in state in Christ Church Cathedral the seat of his activity for the last 35 of the 56 years of his episcopacy.

Since 1903 he had been presiding bishop of the church in the United States.

There was no eulogy and the simple funeral office of the church which serves for priest and laymen, rich and poor alike, was adhered to strictly in compliance with the aged churchman's wishes. As the cortege left the church the bells tolled 35 times, once for each year of his life.

Flowers banked the large altar of the stately edifice and a large blanket of smilax and calla lilies covered the casket. Some of the floral pieces brought memories of the bishop's early life in Montana and Utah. One was from St. Marks Cathedral parish of Salt Lake City, Utah and another was from St. Peters church of Helena, Montana. An offering from Zion Church, Morris, N. Y., bore a card on which was written "his first and only parish." It was at this church the bishop served as pastor prior to his elevation to the episcopacy.

CONFESSED LIQUOR THIEF INDICTED

(By The Associated Press)
PEORIA, Ill., April 20.—Arthur Scott, former electrical engineer at the Old Globe distillery, whose alleged confession to prohibition agents implicated him in the sensational whiskey robbery at the Globe plant last winter, was indicted today by the United States grand jury late today. CHANGE IN LAWS FOR LICENSING WILL BE SOUGHT

Physicians, Pharmacists and Dentists of State Organize

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 20.—Thirty-five thousand physicians, pharmacists and dentists of Illinois have joined hands to push legislation at the present session of the legislature that will prevent graft and injustice in the examination and licensing of doctors, dentists and pharmacists. It was announced here today.

A bill has been introduced in the house at Springfield, amending the civil administrative code which prevents the director of registration and education from exercising arbitrary power. According to Dr. G. Walter Dittmar, a Chicago dentist, who is chairman of the combined legislative committee of the three organizations backing the movement, the Illinois State Medical Society, Illinois state dental society and the Illinois Pharmaceutical association.

The bill—No. 336—has been referred to the house committee on efficiency and economy and a meeting of this committee with the leaders of three interested professions, will be held in Chicago tomorrow.

"Our object," said Dr. Dittmar, "is to protect our own professions and to safeguard the people of Illinois from a repetition of the scandal during the administration of Director W. H. Miller. We are asking that three official boards, one for each of the professions be appointed by the governor and not by director. The tenure of the office would be for five years. Three official boards would be responsible under the proposed law for the proper administration of the licensing and revocation of license. Now the director is the only one who has to sign the licenses or the records refusing them."

STAR WITNESS TO TAKE THE STAND MONDAY MORNING

Is Prosecution's Star Witness in Ruthenberg Trial

(By The Associated Press)
ST. JOSEPH, Mich., April 20.—The first week of the trial of Charles Ruthenberg, of Cleveland, charged with criminal syndicalism ended tonight with the state's story of the raid on the Communist convention at Bridgman last August, virtually completed and the way cleared for the prosecution's star witness, Francis Morrow, to take the stand Monday.

Morrow, or "K-97" as he is known in the department of justice files is the government agent who worked up so high in the communist ranks that he attended the convention as a delegate.

Today's surprise was an effort by the defense to prove, on cross examination, that the prosecution witnesses that one of the government's most important pieces of evidence, a copy of the program and constitution of the communist party of America—had been planted in Ruthenberg's baggage by a department of justice agent.

On a direct examination by Charles W. Gore, prosecuting attorney of Berrien county, the witnesses, Edward Shanahan of the bureau of investigation denied that he had brought any radical literature or documents to Michigan when he came here before the raid and denied that he had seen any of the state's exhibits prior to the digging up of two barrels in which the paraphernalia of the communist convention had been buried by the grounds convention.

SEE COMMUNISTS HAND IN MUELHEIM

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, April 20.—According to newspaper accounts published here of the disorders in Muelheim, there is little doubt that a regular communist "putch" had been arranged in the Muelheim district. Those who participated in the outbreak, the correspondents say were not employed men, as they claimed to be, but criminal elements under communist leaders, formed into military organizations and plentifully supplied with arms taken from the shops.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Election of Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook of Cooksburg, Pa., as president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution was announced at today's session of the society's annual congress. Tabulation of the ballots cast yesterday by delegates showed she has received 940 votes to 779 recorded for Mrs. G. Wallace W. Hanger of Washington, her only opponent.

Announcement of the result which will place Mrs. Cook at the head of the organization for the next three years as a successor to Mrs. George Maynard Miner of Connecticut, swept away the bitterness that marked the triennial election campaign. Mrs. Hanger received an ovation when she thanked her supporters and urged them to support the new administration.

Mrs. Cook, 74, a moment later, was accorded a similar ovation when she expressed her gratitude for the election. She and other executive officers whose election also was announced will be inaugurated at the concluding session of the congress tomorrow.

In the voting for minor offices, many of the delegates divided their support between the tickets offered by the Cook and Hanger factions. The result that despite Mrs. Thomas A. Edison of New Jersey, running as a Hanger candidate, was elected chaplain-general by a vote of 871 to 746 over Mrs. Rhett Goode of Alabama, who was Mrs. Cook's candidate.

All the rest of the Cook ticket was elected, although in several cases the result was close.

The other successful candidates follow:

Mrs. Frank H. Briggs of Maine, recording secretary-general; Mrs. Franklin P. Shumway, of Massachusetts, corresponding secretary-general; William S. Walker of Washington, organizing secretary-general; Mrs. James H. Standfield of Illinois, registrar-general; Mrs. Alfred J. Brosseau of Michigan, treasurer-general; Mrs. George Debolt of West Virginia, historian-general; Mrs. Alvin H. Connelly of Missouri, recorder-general; Mrs. Larz Anderson of the District of Columbia librarian-general; Mrs. Charles S. Whitman of New York editor-general.

MAY HAVE TO RE-ENACT BILLS

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 20.—Several members of the Illinois assembly expressed fear today that they would be called upon to re-enact a large number of bills to make them conform to a recent supreme court ruling. The decree was to the effect that "emergency" bills must state clearly the cause of the emergency, something that as a rule is not done.

The decision was handed down in a case appealed from the city court of Kewanee, which had to do with the sale of stock under the blue sky law. The statement in a bill that an emergency exists is not an expression of an existing emergency, the high court holds, and the opinion also points out that emergency bills have been improperly drawn since 1887.

Emergency bills require two-thirds votes to carry, and become effective immediately on being signed by the governor. A number of appropriation measures enacted this year were emergency. Some legislators believe that any person opposed to a law now in effect, enacted with an emergency clause, can attack it in the supreme court and win his case. The law taxing shares of stock of the near value, for instance, has been fought by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association. It recently was enacted as emergency.

Lawmakers are hopeful that they will not have to retrace their steps on much legislation, but their fingers are crossed.

LORD COLE CALLS ON WOODROW WILSON

Washington, April 20.—Woodrow Wilson received a call today from Lord Robert Cecil, British proponent of the League of Nations who is in Washington for a two day stay. FIVE AIRPLANES SPEEDING TO AID MAROONED PEOPLE

All Carried Food and Some Deached Destination

(By The Associated Press)
NORTHPORT, Mich., April 20.—The fate of the woman and nine men marooned on South Fox Island, 18 miles off shore in Lake Michigan from Northport, Of the five airplanes which speeded to the rescue of the woodcutters, two were permanently disabled and the other three apparently lost.

At 9 p. m. no word has been received from the three planes from Chicago which set out for the island earlier in the day. Fear was expressed that they had been able in landing on the island, or that they may have dropped into the lake. It was pointed out however, that they might have started back to Chicago by some other route than Northport.

Wilson & Co., Chicago packers, which stocked with provisions the plane piloted by John Miller at 8:30 o'clock tonight telephoned newspapermen here that no word had been received at Chicago from the flier.

Miller's plane, carrying another pilot, a newspaperman and photographer landed here at 10 p. m., and set out for the island soon afterward.

At 4 p. m. two more planes from Chicago, flying together passed over Northport without stopping, headed for the island.

One government mail plane piloted by E. Hamilton Lee, who was accompanied by a newspaperman and the other by Lieut. H. E. Woodbridge of the army who also carried a newspaper representative.

Lieutenant Russell Meredith of Selfridge Field, Mount Clemens, Mich., whose plane came to grief here this morning in an attempt to land for supplies announced tonight that he would ask his commanding officer to send another plane to hunt for the missing airmen.

Lieutenant Meredith was the second army flier from Selfridge Field to attempt the rescue. His Bellanca bomber was stripped of its propeller and landing gear as it landed on the shore here at 11 a. m. The pilot and a Detroit newspaperman who accompanied him, were unhurt.

Lieutenant E. O. Whitehead's Jenny army airplane from Selfridge Field which crashed through the ice in Traverse Bay yesterday was sinking deeper into the water tonight. A crew of men spent the afternoon chopping the ice in an effort to extricate the plane, but were halted by darkness.

Nonetheless, a quiet little village ordinarily was something with excitement today. School children refused to attend their classes and the teachers were forced to close the schools, while the business of the town was practically at a standstill.

WHERE WAS DEVINE WHEN THE LIGHTS OUT-IS QUESTION

Republicans and Democrats Differ as to Whereabouts

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 20.—The whereabouts of the late Representative Devine, who was killed in the Springfield riot, is the subject of a question which has been asked by Republicans and Democrats alike. The question is whether or not Devine was in Springfield at the time of the riot, and if so, what he was doing there. The Republicans claim that Devine was in Springfield at the time of the riot, and that he was killed there. The Democrats claim that Devine was not in Springfield at the time of the riot, and that he was killed elsewhere. The question is still unanswered.

Speaker Shanahan settled the question by saying there was no objection to sending the bill back to second reading.

Reporting by the judiciary committee of the seven "wet" measures and one "dry" resolution with unfavorable recommendations was followed by a motion of Rep. Igoe to non-concur in the report. He asked that action on the motion be delayed until his own "wet" bill, introduced Wednesday, is reported from committee. When this is done, a free-for-all wet and dry battle is expected on the House floor.

Rep. Igoe's idea in making his motion is to allow members of the house who are on the judiciary committee to express themselves on the prohibition question.

Members of the 150 members were present today, and consequently no more could be passed. A dozen first and second readings bills were passed to second and third readings. Rep. McCarthy, republican, Elgin, took the floor on a question of personal privilege and denied a news story in a Chicago morning paper to the effect that he and one of the alleged members of the "fara bloc" would be responsible for the probable defeat of the gateway amendment to the state constitution. He declared he was opposed to all blocs and that he did not belong to one. The judiciary committee reported favorably on a bill of Rep. Har, republican, Chicago, to authorize the department of public welfare to keep permanent record of information concerning felons and identification of felons.

A resolution offered by Rep. Thon, republican, Chicago, commending the work of the Frank Walton League, which is now in session in Chicago was adopted. The house adjourned at 10:25 out of respect to the late Thomas O'Connor, former fire department chief of Chicago, adopting a memorial resolution presented by Rep. Daley, democrat, Chicago.

HARDING WOULD OPPOSE REMOVAL

Washington, April 20.—President Harding wrote Senator McReath, Tennessee, today in reply to his plea that the statue of Andrew Jackson be retained opposite the white house in Lafayette square that he would have "the hesitancy whatever in opposing such a removal if such a proposition were to be made seriously." The president said he had not heard of any plan to remove the statue.

MUELHEIM CITIZENS ORGANIZE AGAINST UNEMPLOYED MOBS

Many Casualties as Result of Three Days of Mob Rule

(By The Associated Press)
MUELHEIM, April 20.—The citizens of Muehlheim and its vicinity tonight are organizing for self-protection against the unemployed mobs which were dispersed this morning from the center of the town and now are assembling in the outskirts.

Armed with axe handles and other improvised weapons, the people of Muehlheim are going about the streets ready to repel any further invasion of the town by the malcontents.

The Red Cross society's representatives said that nine or ten persons are dead and seventy wounded in consequence of the three days of mob rule, but this count is not an accurate one inasmuch as those who had been killed or injured were not counted. Most of the dead and injured were among the unemployed who were injured when beaten over the head with clubs.

Ten of the defenders of the Rathaus received bullet wounds. In the suburbs where the bands driven out of the town are gathering it is reported they are holding up pedestrians and plundering. Some of the men entered restaurants and ordered meals and drinks. When the bill was presented a fight was started and Rosenthal was killed and his son shot four times.

German officials assert that most of those engaged in the disorders are communists. About thirty of the leaders have been arrested but some of them are still at large. The officials of both Muehlheim and places in the vicinity assure that they intend to take measures tomorrow which will entirely end the communist movement.

FIREMAN LEAPS TO HIS DEATH FROM AN EXHIBITION TOWER

Were Practicing for Demonstration at San Antonio

(By The Associated Press)
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 20.—Trapped by flames in the exhibition tower in the pagoda grounds, two firemen leaped from the blazing structure at 12:10 Friday afternoon, one to his death. Fireman A. C. Flurey was killed. Captain R. F. Martin, No. 1 hook and ladder company is badly injured.

Firemen practicing for a demonstration Friday night set fire to the structure unaware that their fellow firemen were in the structure. Flurey leaped from the top of the structure as the flames licked the framework about his feet. Hundreds saw the doomed man step into space as the fire raged toward him.

Captain Martin jumped from the third story. His body was burned severely before he jumped. The tower 62 feet high was to have been the scene of a spectacular fire scene Friday night.

Captain Martin, menaced by flames, leaped from the tower at a point 30 feet above the ground. Fireman Flurey, trapped while at the extreme top of the tower, leaped the full 62 feet.

PRESIDENT WILL EXPLAIN COURT PROPOSAL SOON

Believes People Do Not Understand Intentions

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 20.—Convinced that lack of information is responsible for much of the opposition to the administration plan for American membership in the permanent court of international justice, President Harding is understood to have decided to explain the proposal carefully and in detail at the first favorable opportunity.

The explanation contemplated by the chief executive is expected to take the form of a letter or an address, more probably the latter. In any event it is regarded as unlikely that the presidential pronouncement will be delayed until the proposed western speaking trip to start the middle of June.

Some of the president's advisers are of the opinion that it should be made in the near future and this opinion became more decided after Representative Will R. Wood of Indiana, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, during a call at the white house today asserted that the world court proposal had aroused more opposition among Republicans in the middlewest than the league of nations.

Accepts Invitations

The president has accepted several invitations to make addresses, some of them only tentatively, within the next few weeks. A dozen or more additional invitations have been received and among these it is considered practically certain the executive can find an appropriate occasion to make his explanation.

Mr. Harding was in conference for half an hour with Mr. Root, who was the single American who sat on the commission which drafted the statute outlining the procedure, membership and other details of the international court. The former secretary of state after his conference declined to discuss his conversation with the president beyond saying that he called to pay his respects but it was presumed that the court proposal entered into the discussion. The conference with Mr. Root was followed by a call at the white house by Secretary Hughes. The state department head saw the president only briefly but it was considered probable that he may have delivered something on the world court proposal requested by the president earlier in the day at the cabinet meeting.

More League Of Nations Propaganda

(By The Associated Press)
GENEVA, April 20.—League of nations officials are chanting a song of victory for in their opinion, league stock is looking up. The Irish Free State applied for membership today. Turkey is coming in when peace is signed at Lausanne and the United States, they say is at least displaying a burning interest in the court of international justice, a child of the league. It is emphasized also that the American people are showing a greatly augmented spirit of investigation into the doings of the league itself. Ireland's application for membership which was presented today by Michael MacWhite, the Free State's representative in Central Europe is expected to be accepted by the assembly when it meets in September, making the league membership 53 countries. It is anticipated, however, that Egypt as is anticipated, petitions for admission to the league, it will with Turkey make the membership 55 countries.

The Irish announcement was made with something sort of dramatic. MacWhite appeared and distributed letters. Ireland's application will be distributed immediately to the members of the league who can admit her by a two-thirds vote at the assembly meeting in the fall. MacWhite was subjected to a broadside of questions which he answered freely. He insisted that Ireland's admission did not mean she would follow on the trail of England in the league's activities. This statement came in response to a German correspondent who called attention to Ireland's admission to the league would mean another British vote making seven in all. No objection could be raised by the friends of Ireland in America and elsewhere, MacWhite declared, that admission of Ireland to the league symbolized the strengthening of British control of the league, as the policy of the Irish government was well known that nobody would play the game of England or humbly follow in England's footsteps.

You can be sure all of you that Ireland will pursue an independent policy, he said, repeating it vigorously in French so that the non-English newspapermen would not lose its significance. MacWhite explained that it was indicated from the start of the treaty negotiations with England that Ireland could join the league.

Mr. Lloyd George had written to Arthur Griffith that he would support such a move. "Irishmen believe in the league," the envoy added, "if admitted our voice will ever be heard as the sponsor of international justice."

Speaking of internal affairs, he declared the political revolution against the free state government had ended, and there were several conditions answered. When asked if DeValera had been captured he smiled but made no reply.

Although the mountain has erupted several times recently the "blowoff" tonight was said to have been the most severe in years. The detonation was heard for miles around. ## CHANGE IN LAWS FOR LICENSING WILL BE SOUGHT

Physicians, Pharmacists and Dentists of State Organize

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 20.—Thirty-five thousand physicians, pharmacists and dentists of Illinois have joined hands to push legislation at the present session of the legislature that will prevent graft and injustice in the examination and licensing of doctors, dentists and pharmacists, it was announced here today.

A bill has been introduced in the house at Springfield, amending the civil administrative code which prevents the director of registration and education from exercising arbitrary power. According to Dr. G. Walter Dittmar, a Chicago dentist who is chairman of the combined legislative committee of the three organizations backing the movement, the Illinois State Medical Society, Illinois state dental society and the Illinois Pharmaceutical association.

The bill—No. 386—has been referred to the house committee on efficiency and economy and a meeting of this committee with the leaders of three interested professions, will be held in Chicago tomorrow.

"Our object," said Dr. Dittmar, "is to protect our own professions and to safeguard the people of Illinois from a repetition of the scandal during the administration of Director W. H. H. Miller. We are asking that three official boards, one for each of the professions, be appointed by the governor and not by director. The tenure of the office would be for five years. Three official boards would be responsible under the proposed law for the proper administration of the licensing and revocation of licenses. Now the director is the only one who has to sign the licenses or the records refusing them."

STAR WITNESS TO TAKE THE STAND MONDAY MORNING

Is Prosecution's Star Witness in Ruthenberg Trial

(By The Associated Press)
ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 20.—The first week of the trial of Charles Ruthenberg, of Cleveland, charged with criminal syndicalism ended tonight with the state's story of the raid on the Communist convention at Bridgman last August, virtually completed and the way paved for the prosecution's star witness, Francis Morrow, to take the stand Monday.

Morrow, or "K-97" as he is known in the government agency which worked up so high in the communist ranks that he attended the convention as a delegate. Today's surprise was an effort by the defense to present a cross examination of the prosecution's witnesses that one of the government's most important pieces of evidence, a copy of the program and constitution of the communist party of America—had been planted in Ruthenberg's baggage by a department of justice agent.

Dr. J. B. Gorn, prosecuting attorney of Berrian county, the state's witness, Edward Shanahan of the bureau of investigation denied that he had brought any radical literature or documents to Michigan when he came here before the raid and denied that he had seen any of the state's exhibits prior to the digging up of two barrels in which the paraphernalia of the communist convention had been buried by the grounds convention.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 20.—Election of Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook of Cooksburg, Pa., as president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution was announced at today's session of the society's annual congress. Tabulation of the ballots cast yesterday by delegates showed she had received 940 votes to 779 received by Mrs. G. Wallace W. Hanger of Washington, her only opponent.

Announcement of the result which will place Mrs. Cook at the head of the organization for the next three years as a successor to Mrs. George Maynard Miner of Connecticut, swept away the bitterness that marked the triennial election campaign. Mrs. Hanger received an ovation when she thanked her supporters and urged them to support the new administration.

MAY HAVE TO RE-ENACT BILLS

(By The Associated Press)

Lawmakers are hopeful that they will not have to retrace their steps on much legislation, but their fingers are crossed.

(By The Associated Press)
NORTHPORT, Mich., April 20.—The fate of the woman and nine men marooned on South Fox Island, 18 miles off shore in Lake Michigan from Northport, was still unknown here tonight. Of the five airplanes which speeded to the rescue of the woodcutters, two were permanently disabled and the other three apparently lost.

At 9 p. m. no word has been received from the three planes from Chicago which set out for the island earlier in the day. Lieutenant Russell Meredith of Selfridge Field, Mount Clemens, Mich., whose plane came to grief here this morning in an attempt to land for supplies announced tonight that he would ask his commanding officer to send another plane to hunt for the missing airmen.

Lieutenant Meredith was the second army flier from Selfridge Field to attempt the rescue. His Delta bomber was stripped of its propeller and landing gear as it landed on the shore here at 11 a. m. The pilot and a Detroit newspaperman who accompanied him were unhurt.

Lieutenant E. O. Whitehead's Jenny army airplane from Selfridge Field which crashed thru the ice in Traverse Bay yesterday was sinking deeper into the water tonight. A crew of men spent the afternoon chopping the ice in an effort to extricate the plane, but were halted by darkness.

Northport, a quiet little village ordinarily, was suddenly in great excitement today. School children refused to attend their classes and the teachers were forced to close the schools, while the business of the town was practically at a standstill.

A THOUGHT

Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver.—II Cor. 9:7.

Great minds, like heaven, are pleased in doing good, though the ungrateful subjects of their favors are barren in return.—Howe.

The total spending power of the dwellers in the cities and towns of the United States during 1923, will be about $45,000,000,000. This represents the income which these people will receive. About $32,000,000,000 of this amount represents wages and salaries.

Investigation shows that German industrialists pay their skilled labor about two dollars a week in marks and their unskilled labor one dollar a week. Meanwhile the German manufacturers ship their goods abroad and payment is made in dollars which are deposited in a bank designated outside Germany. This would indicate that the attempt France to make Germany pay her just debts is not without justification.

The fire and police protection afforded citizens of towns and cities is usually evident only when a crime is committed or a fire occurs. However, efforts to eliminate the sources of crime and educate the people in methods of fire prevention are fast gaining popularity. This latter kind of protection will no doubt become even more effective than the first.

A REAL FRIEND TO BOYS.

The recent death of Bishop Tuttle in St. Louis brought to the minds of a number of Jacksonville people days of twenty years ago, when the new Bishop Tuttle was at a Michigan resort. He was much younger then and especially interested in boys' work. He took the opportunity at the Michigan resort of leading in swimming and various athletic events, and thus establishing terms of comradeship with the boys.

Then he always found the way to interest them in more serious subjects and those vacation days at the northern resort in more than one way made lasting impression upon the lives of many lads who today are mature men and much stronger because of their companionship with Bishop Tuttle, who did not then have the title which was his at the end but nevertheless he was indeed a minister of the gospel.

THE INJUSTICE OF PUNISHMENT.

When some great crime is committed and the one accused is found guilty and sent to prison, his relatives at home often bear the greater burden. Penalties must be exacted when laws are violated, but in case the father is sent to prison the question comes, what consideration do we owe to wife and children?

The accused man, getting board and lodging while the chances are that his wife at home is dodging right and left to make a living. The nearest neighbor may not even recognize that such a family exists.

A Jacksonville man approached the discussion of this subject in the following rhymed lines:

"This condition should be heeded, for a change is sadly needed; we are punishing the culprit, but we punish others too. 'Tis not fair to bring privations, to his innocent relations; they are loaded down at present with enough to make them blue. Why should they be made to suffer, on account of some poor dufer, who went wrong thru sudden impulse, and is toiling for the state? By his labor, we are reaping benefits that pay his keeping, but should we not try to form some plan to partly compensate his poor wife, or lass, or laddie, who must suffer for their 'daddy,' even though they never have been guilty of a single crime? Under some new law construction, we should pay for his production, and should send it to his family, while he is doing 'time.'"

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

Domestically Speaking

By Berton Braley

NO doubt the centipede at home
Is gentle, generous and kind.
But centipedes abroad will roam
And when they do, I'm not inclined
To pat one gently on the head;
And if I did it, I'd be dead.

THE cobra in his domicile,
Away from worry and strife,
May greet his children with a smile
And show affection to his wife;
But in his public life I'm prone
To leave the cobra quite alone.

FOR certain crooks and buccaneers
Apologists will make this plea—
'He's not as bad as he appears.
He's so good to his family!'
The cobra and the centipede
Might plead the same, but who would heed?

WOULD MAINTAIN C. P. AS FREIGHT CARRIER

Petition Being Circulated Which Favors Cutting off of C. P. & St. L. Passenger Service and Continuing Operations With Reduced Expenses—Will Present Document to Court.

A petition drawn up by Attorneys Searcy & Searcy and Springfield and John J. Reeve of this city is now being circulated in an effort to partially save the C. P. & St. L. railway from abandonment. The petition is to be signed by leading citizens and business men in all communities affected by the road and will doubtless contain several thousand names.

The petition asks the court and interstate commerce commission to keep the road in operation, though on a reduced basis. It is petitioned that the line be a freight road only, as the losses during the past two years have been due mainly to the effort to maintain a passenger service. It is requested that all passenger trains be immediately annulled, and that freight service, which has been conducted at a profit, according to reports of the road be maintained.

The petition asks the appointment of a manager who shall serve at a dollar a year. It advises the elimination of all station agents, who have been kept on the job merely to serve the passenger traffic. It is intended in every way possible to cut down expenses, but at the same time to keep the freight trains running for the benefit of the business men and farmers along the route.

F. J. RAYMOND GIVES FINAL LECTURE HERE

Business Experts Tells Large Audience How to Get Results—Pithy Sayings Convey Thoughts to Hearers—Speaker Says Home Is More Than Money

The closing lecture by Frank Jewel Raymond was given before a crowded house Friday evening. "Getting Results" was the title of his address, and in it Mr. Raymond showed the business man and woman how to use what they have to get what they want.

The speaker said that, by acquiring knowledge of our ownness as we work we provide the wire over which comes the power of judgment, and we learn to develop enthusiasm, which gives us the voltage to get results. Mr. Raymond recommended the habit of gaining one new idea a day by asking a question concerning the business in hand and answering that question in as few words as possible. He told of his habit of acquiring a phrase a day, and his lectures are filled with terse, striking phrases, which fix in the memory of his hearers the thoughts which he wishes to convey. Here are some of Mr. Raymond's sayings:

Merely making money makes men miserable.

Fame and fortune favors the fellow fit to fight to the finish.

You can't stand still and not a chance.

Think it over, put it over, and you won't have to do it over.

Your business is the gymnasium in which you exercise your mental muscles.

The speaker urged his hearers to avoid knocking the competitor's goods, to keep from knocking over the heads of their customers by using unfamiliar terms, and to avoid misrepresentation.

He emphasized the point that when a salesman talks to a prospective customer, he is talking him for a walk mentally and should let the customer set the pace, endeavoring to adapt himself to the other's nature, and mental makeup. Personality, the method of approach and the ability to appeal to the customer thru more than one of his physical senses are necessary in getting results.

The speaker closed his address with the question, "Is your home steam heated or heart heated," emphasizing the warning that in the pursuit of success, people should not neglect the home and the finer things which can come from maintaining it intact. There is more to be gained than money, and if a man acquires sufficient money to purchase food, clothing, shelter and recreation for himself and family, he has achieved that side of success.

The speaker made a powerful appeal to the audience, that each should go on in the struggle for success in the work in which he was engaged. The same words which we use to encourage the athlete, the runner, the contestant in a game on track, gridiron or diamond, applies to the man in business and professional life. Go on!

FORMER RESIDENT DIED IN BROWN COUNTY

John T. Simpkin Who Passed Away Spent Many of Earlier Years Here.

Brief mention was previously made of the death of John T. Simpkin at his home in Brown county. The deceased was well known in Jacksonville and Morgan county, and has numerous relatives in this locality.

The following facts concerning Mr. Simpkin's life and the funeral services held last Monday are taken from the Mt. Sterling Democrat-Messenger:

John Thomas Simpkin was born near Griggsville, in Pike county, Illinois, November 24, 1845. His parents George and Mary Simpkin having moved to that place from Yorkshire, England, in 1840. Later they located on a farm one mile northwest of Clayton, Illinois.

He was the next youngest of a family of nine children, all of whom preceded him in death.

In his early boyhood he worked on his father's farm until in 1862 when the country called for volunteers he enlisted on the 13th day of June, as a soldier in Company C, Third Missouri Cavalry Volunteer and served three years.

On his return from the war he spent part of the time on the farm with his parents and the other part in Morgan county, Illinois, working out by the day and month until at the age of thirty years he had saved one thousand dollars which he placed in thirty acres of land located about two miles northeast of Timewell, Illinois, and which still forms a part of the homestead where he has resided since his marriage, on April 21, 1878, to Margaret H. Dunlap of near Jacksonville, Morgan county, Illinois. To them were born four children, namely: Jess Thomas, Jennie May, Hattie Bell and Mamie.

After his marriage he engaged in farming and stock raising and was successful in that industry.

He believed in everything that was honest and right and his faith in God carried him over all the rough places in life. He was converted in early manhood but never united with any church until January 21, 1866, when he became a member of the M. E. church of Timewell, Illinois, under the pastorate of Rev. Charles W. Monson, and has since that time been a faithful member, until April 13, 1923, about 4 o'clock a. m., the death angel called him from this life to the life beyond.

He had been in failing health for a number of years and since February, 1919, he had been confined to his bed. He possessed a cheerful disposition and fully appreciated the constant care that was lovingly ministered to him.

He had expressed his readiness for the Master's summons, and in the presence of his wife and all the children and also his physician Dr. D. R. Peters of Mt. Sterling, Illinois, he peacefully passed away.

Now he is gone, but the memories of a kind and ever loving husband and father still remain.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Chas. W. Monson, a former pastor and close friend of the family, on Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the comfortable old home which he loved and where he had spent so many happy years.

A quartet composed of Mrs. John Jennings, Mrs. Henry Hatch, Gus Stout and George Davis impressively sang "Nearer My God to Thee," "Sweetly Resting," and "Near The Cross," while Mrs. Earl Bennett presided at the organ.

The floral offerings were cared for by Leola DeWitt and Mamie Jennings.

The pall bearers were Earl Bennett, Harry Pridemore, Russell DeWitt, Don Brown and Chester Davis, and the remains were conveyed to the South Side Clayton cemetery to await the final interment.

The music and songs, the scripture readings from Isaiah 40:1-5, First John 1:7-11 and John 11:1-2, the appropriate sermon, the lovely flowers, and the many kind acts of friends and neighbors were very comforting to the bereaved ones in this trying experience, it being the first occasion when death had entered their home.

HOWITZER COMPANY OPENS ITS NEW HALL

More Than Two Hundred Attend Dance Given to Dedicate Amory—Will Give Dances Each Week.

The officers and members of the Howitzer company of the 13th infantry did themselves proud in the entertainment of more than two hundred guests who attended the dedication of the new amory on East State street last night. The courteous and mannerly actions of the personnel of the organization were such as should always characterize the true soldier.

Four hundred invitations had been sent out, but on account of the threatening weather earlier in the evening, a great many who would undoubtedly have been present under other circumstances, were discouraged from attending, however, left nothing to be desired to make the function a very decided success. The guests were of the representative people of Jacksonville, both in business and social circles.

The hall was beautifully decorated with the insignia of the historical Thirty-Third division, placed on a background of tastefully draped flags. Small but large, filled with gas floated gaily about the ball room. The reception room contained large bouquets of roses and daffodils. Mrs. Charles Price, of Price's jewelry store, presented the officers and members with a large bouquet of hot house roses, accompanied by a card wishing them the best of success in their new quarters.

The large 50x74 foot floor was in excellent condition for dancing and Brown's six-piece orchestra was at its best while playing for the crowd that had assembled. The acoustics of the hall are near perfect, making dancing there an unusual pleasure.

Delicious frappe was served during the evening.

An admission charge was made and a handsome sum was realized which will be used to properly furnish the quarters for social functions and for the comfort of the members.

Among the military men present were Col. O. C. Smith, Jacksonville, who was formerly Judge Advocate with the Thirty-Third division in France during the World War, and First Lieutenant Harold M. B. Galloway of Co. 1, 13th Infantry, Salem, Illinois.

It is the intention of the organization to hold two dances a week, for the rest of the season, and any who attend need have no fear as to the quality of these gatherings.

FORMER RESIDENT OF COUNTY IS DEAD

Remains of Mrs. J. W. McGibbon to Be Brought Here from Brooklyn, N. Y., for Burial—Was Early Resident of the County

A telegram received Friday morning by J. Marshall Miller told of the death of a distant relative of his, Mrs. J. W. McGibbon, who passed away Thursday at the family home in Brooklyn, N. Y., following an attack of illness.

The remains are to be brought to this city for interment in Diamond Grove cemetery, and will probably arrive tomorrow. The remains are to be accompanied by the two daughters of the deceased, Misses Ella and Viola McGibbon.

The deceased, who was seventy-nine years of age, was a daughter of the late James and Rebecca Marshall. She was born at the Marshall homestead three miles northwest of this city and spent her girlhood days there. In early womanhood she was united in marriage to Rev. J. W. McGibbon, who was a minister in the United Presbyterian denomination and filled various charges in this vicinity.

Rev. Mr. McGibbon passed away about fifteen years ago and was buried in Diamond Grove cemetery here. One son, James McGibbon, died twenty or more years since and is also interred at Diamond Grove cemetery.

The deceased will be remembered by a number of the older residents, as she belonged to one of the well known families of the county.

Announcement as to the time of the funeral will be made later.

SEALED VERDICT IN HAXTON CASE

Jury Which Heard Evidence on Liquor Case in County Court Made Quick Finding

The evidence was concluded yesterday afternoon in the case of Pete Haxton, charged with violation of the liquor laws. The case was given the jury about 5 o'clock and within an hour a sealed verdict was returned.

Judge Samuel was not in the city. The verdict is to be opened in court this morning at 9 o'clock. State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson presented the state's case and the defendant was represented by Walter W. Wright. Roland Morris and Alfred Loeper, who have been making some special investigations for the state's attorney in his effort to put a stop to bootlegging in Morgan county, were among the witnesses for the state.

Mr. Robinson maintained that thru these men he had ample proof that the defendant had been guilty of selling intoxicating liquor. The attorney for the defendant put these witnesses thru sharp cross examination in the effort to discredit them.

Still another witness for the state was Prof. Leavenworth of the department of chemistry at Illinois college, who testified as to the alcoholic content of samples of liquor which he had tested.

The jury included the following: George W. Siegfried, Charles James, Frank Ratschak, W. N. Bobbitt, George Florence, Stuart M. Post, Fred Hopper, John Hagerty, Simon Fernandez, Charles McDonald, Curtis Scott and Charles Watson.

SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPERS

The evening meal on Sunday night is usually a light one. This is the time when the men in the family learn to do many culinary tricks, which they enjoy; and such knowledge is often invaluable when the wife and mother is ill or away.

The making of a palatable piece of toast is simple, but the hundred varieties of spoiled toast will testify that it is often served as the small boy said, "well burned and scraped at the kitchen sink," his idea of the way to prepare toast.

Toast may be the basis for any number of tasty lunches or suppers. A well-browned, crisp, buttered piece of toast served with rarebit, creamed fish, oysters or a vegetable like celery is a wholesome, filling dish.

A dish which is almost universally liked is fried oysters. Roll the large oysters in rolled crackers that have been well seasoned with salt and pepper, then saute them in butter in the chafing dish or on the gas stove, until they are plump and well-browned. Serve with a relish, or with cabbage dressed with vinegar, salt and pepper.

The relish, whether chowder of chopped vegetables, browned sauce or any good chili sauce, may be served in lemon cups, one for each plate. Cut the lemon in halves, trim to make it stand firmly and fill with any desired mixture.

An onion sandwich is a very good one to serve for Sunday night lunch after church. Cut the onion into very thin slices and place on buttered bread. With a glass of milk, hot or cold, or a cupful of hot cocoa, the appetite will be well satisfied. The eating of raw onions once or twice a week will be found highly beneficial, warding off disease and keeping the body in good health. Take cottage cheese or one or two bricks of cream cheese, mix with cream to soften, add a few coarsely chopped nuts, serve on lettuce with a boiled dressing.

Cold meats left over from the dinner may be used with hot sauces or served as sandwich filling. With cake or cookies one may serve a satisfying meal.

HAD FIRST PUBLIC SCHOOL

Beginning of Institution Can Clearly Be Traced to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Early attempts to provide elementary education were made in Virginia, and by the Dutch in New York, but Massachusetts must be looked to for the beginning of the American public school. In 1635 a town meeting of the people of Boston requested Philemon Purmont to become schoolmaster, and voted him 30 acres of land in part pay for his services. The school begun by Mr. Purmont later became the Boston Latin school, and has had a continuous existence. Other colonies followed in Boston's steps, and the next ten years saw common schools established in all the New England settlements. In 1647 the general court of Massachusetts ordered every town of 50 families to select a teacher, whose salary was to be paid by the parents of the children he taught or by the inhabitants in general. At the same time townships having one hundred families were ordered to establish a grammar school to fit youth for college. The law establishing these two grades of schools laid the foundation of the American public school system.

Real Affection.

He—Indeed, I am fond of children, particularly in the country. She—Why particularly when you're in the country? He—Not when I'm in the country. When they are.

Queer.

"History is a queer thing, after all," we mused. "Yes," agreed J. Fuller Gloom. "It relates many things that have come to pass, but only a few that have come to stay."—Kansas City Star.

Exact.

"What made you get mad and leave the restaurant?" inquired Mrs. Corns of her husband. "Didn't you hear the waiter say the soup was mock turtle? We want genuine or nothin'!"

Get health—Keep health—Feel fine by eating Kellogg's Bran regularly!

Constipation and the toxic poisonings that come from it not only take the enthusiasm out of life, making you depressed and physically and mentally dull—but they head you into diseases such as Bright's, diabetes, rheumatism, etc. You can actually rid yourself of these dangers if you will EAT KELLOGG'S BRAN REGULARLY!—at least two tablespoonfuls daily; in chronic cases with every meal!

Kellogg's Bran is nature's most wonderful food. It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering humanity from constipation and it will do that as no other food can! Don't take a chance of "getting away" with constipation—IT WILL GET YOU! Don't ruin your health with pills and cathartics—they are as dangerous as constipation itself and give but temporary relief at the very best!

What you should do for your family and for yourself is to serve Kellogg's Bran every day, in any one of several attractive ways, and fight constipation as you have never fought it before! AND YOU WILL WIN.

In the first place, Kellogg's Bran is delicious in its nut-like flavor, adding greatly to any cereal with which it is used. Eat bran as a cereal with hot milk, or mix it with hot cereal before serving. Another method is to cook Kellogg's Bran with cereal. In each case add two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person. A popular way is to sprinkle bran on hot or cold cereal. Bran makes wonderful bakery products. Recipes are printed on every package.

Kellogg's Bran is served in leading hotels, restaurants and clubs. It is sold by all grocers.

A THOUGHT

Every man according as he purposed in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver.—II Cor. 9:7.

Great minds, like heaven, are pleased in doing good, though the ungrateful subjects of their favors are barren in return.—Howe.

The total spending power of the dwellers in the cities and towns of the United States during 1922, will be about $45,000,000,000. This represents the income which these people will receive. About $32,000,000,000 of this amount represents wages and salaries.

Investigation shows that German industrialists pay their skilled labor about two dollars a week in marks and their unskilled labor one dollar a week. Meanwhile the German manufacturers ship their goods abroad and payment is made in dollars which are deposited in a bank designated outside Germany. This would indicate that the attempt France to make Germany pay her just debts is not without justification.

The fire and police protection afforded citizens of towns and cities is usually evident only when a crime is committed or a fire occurs. However, efforts to eliminate the sources of crime and educate the people in methods of fire prevention are fast gaining popularity. This latter kind of protection will no doubt become even more effective than the first.

A REAL FRIEND TO BOYS.

The recent death of Bishop Tuttle in St. Louis brought to the minds of a number of Jacksonville people days of twenty years ago, when the now Bishop Tuttle was at a Michigan resort. He was much younger then and especially interested in boys' work. He took the opportunity at the Michigan resort of leading in swimming and various athletic events, and thus establishing terms of comradeship with the boys.

Then he always found the way to interest them in more serious subjects and those vacation days at the northern resort in more than one way made lasting impression upon the lives of many boys who today are mature men and much stronger because of their companionship with Bishop Tuttle, who did not then have the title which was his at the end but nevertheless he was indeed a minister of the gospel.

THE INJUSTICE OF PUNISHMENT.

When some great crime is committed and the one accused is found guilty and sent to prison, his relatives at home often bear the greater burden. Penalties must be exacted when laws are violated, but in case the father is sent to prison the question comes, what consideration do we owe to wife and children?

The accused man, getting board and lodging while the chances are that his wife at home is going right and left to make a living. The nearest neighbor may not even recognize that such a family exists.

A Jacksonville man approaches the discussion of this subject in the following rhymed lines: "This condition should be headed, for a change is sadly needed; we are punishing the culprit, but we punish others too. 'Tis not fair to bring privations, to his innocent relations; they are loaded down at present with enough to make them blue. Why should they be made to suffer, on account of some poor duffer, who went wrong thru sudden impulse, and is toiling for the state? By his labor we are reaping benefits that pay his keeping, but should we not try to form some plan to partly compensate his poor wife, or less, or laddie, who must suffer for their 'daddy', even though they never have been guilty of a single crime? Under some new law construction, we should pay for his production, and should send it to his family, while he is doing 'time'."

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

Domestically Speaking

By Berton Braley

NO doubt the centipede at home
Is gentle, generous and kind,
But centipedes abroad will roam
And when they do, I'm not inclined
To put one gently on the head;
And if I did it, I'd be dead.

THE cobra in his domicile,
Away from worry and strife,
May greet his children with a smile
And show affection to his wife;
But in his public life I'm prone
To leave the cobra quite alone.

FOR certain crooks and buccaneers
Apologists will make this plea—
"He's not as bad as he appears,
He's so good to his family!"
The cobra and the centipede
Might plead the same, but who would heed?

ROTARIANS CHOOSE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Nine Elected at Meeting Held Friday—Frank Raymond and Dr. C. P. Johnson Made Addresses.

At the luncheon of the Rotary club Friday at the Pacific hotel, Frank J. Raymond of East Orange, N. J., who came to Jacksonville to talk on business success, made a brief and effective address. Subsequently Dr. C. P. Johnson, a staff member representing the department of finance of the board of education of the Methodist church, made an address. Dr. Johnson is here for some preparatory work with reference to the Woman's college campaign, but made only indirect reference to the college.

After a story or two the speaker in a more serious vein laid emphasis upon the essential values that the home, the church and the school give to society.

The guest list of the day included Prof. F. C. Somerville of Bloomington; Dr. Deeler of Chicago; R. M. Galbraith of Pine Bluff, Ark.; Dr. McKelvey, state surgeon, George W. Adams, Jacksonville; Homer Lewis, Champaign; and Dr. H. H. Fletcher, Winchester.

In the early part of the program young men from the Elite players gave three numbers which were greatly appreciated by the Rotarians. The instrumentation included Russell Todd, saxophone; Russell Cummings, banjo; Lloyd Bleier, piano; Byron Craig, violin; Ernest Olde, clarinet.

As one of the entertainment features of the day Point Andrews read a communication to the club, making complaint because of alleged personal insult received from one of the members.

The annual election of directors was held, six being chosen from the membership at large and three from the present board of directors. The board which will begin its duties May 1 includes C. H. Russell, R. W. Woolston, H. M. Capps, H. P. Samuell, R. Taylor, E. E. Crabtree, Dr. A. H. Doleear, Rev. M. L. Postina, and J. W. Matton.

WOULD MAINTAIN C. P. AS FREIGHT CARRIER

Petition Being Circulated Which Favors Cutting off of C. P. & St. L. Passenger Service and Continuing Operations With Reduced Expenses—Will Present Document to Court.

A petition drawn up by Attorney Searcy & Searcy and Springfield and John J. Reeve of this city is now being circulated in an effort to partially save the C. P. & St. L. railway from abandonment. The petition is to be signed by leading citizens and business men in all communities affected by the road and will doubtless contain several thousand names.

The petition asks the court and Interstate commerce commission to keep the road in operation, though on a reduced basis. It is petitioned that the line be a freight road only, as the losses during the past two years have been due mainly to the effort to maintain a passenger service. It is requested that all passenger trains be immediately annulled, and that freight service, which has been conducted at a profit, according to reports of the road be maintained.

The petition asks the appointment of a manager who shall serve at a dollar a year. It advises the elimination of all station agents, who have been kept on the job merely to serve the passenger traffic. It is intended in every way possible to cut down expenses, but at the same time to keep the freight trains running for the benefit of the business men and farmers along the route.

It is stated in the petition that the citizen's committee, which has been fighting against the abandonment of the road, will offer every possible aid and cooperation, provided the road continues to operate in the manner described.

FLOOD SITUATION IN MANITOBA IS STILL DANGEROUS

Many Families Forced to Leave Their Homes By Waters

(By The Associated Press)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 20.—With many districts in Central Southern Manitoba reporting a steady rise in the Assiniboine and Red rivers and tributaries during the night, the flood situation showed no improvement today. Many families have been forced to leave their homes, others are isolated from nearby towns by lakes of water and thousands of acres of farm land in the low-lying districts have been inundated. A few districts reported conditions slightly improved today with the waters receding very slowly.

Some improvement is looked for soon as the ice is showing signs of breaking up and going out and the situation will be aided materially should this occur. The most serious condition exists at Brandon where hundreds of residents living in the section of the city known as the flats have been forced to vacate their homes while others virtually surrounded by the fast rising waters, are making preparations to get to safety. In Winnipeg the Red river continued to rise during the night going up three and a half feet in the past twelve hours, but some improvement is looked for as the ice has broken at St. Andrews locks, twenty miles north of the city and the river is open for a mile along the banks in Winnipeg.

OMEN IN VISIT OF SNAKE

Reptile's Appearance in Seminole Indian Council Induced Tribe to Accept Government's Offer.

Old Indians relate that in the deliberations which led to the emigration from the Florida lands to their home in the West, the Seminole chiefs were still stubborn and rebellious, and the settlement was entirely against accepting the proposition of the government. At this time a large snake entered into the council grounds and slowly coiled himself and looked around upon the gathered tribesmen, as though he were seeking them to take counsel of his movements. For a short time he stayed, then slowly uncoiled himself and leisurely took himself to the westward.

This was taken as an omen by the chiefs and the medicine men, and up on a vote being taken it was unanimously voted to accept the terms of the government and go westward as required. Thus many lives and much expense were saved. Another curious legend among the very old men is that the "Mingeeless," the remnants, will some time come and help the Seminoles to regain their lost lands. This came about probably on account of some old promise made by the British during the fighting days of the Revolution or the War of 1812. And even as late as the Green Peach war, in the early 80s, the old Seminoles proclaimed that the Great War had come, and that the "Mingeeless" were coming with great guns to aid the Seminoles in whipping the white man and regaining their lost lands.

SNAKE IS FINE MOUSER

Boa-Constructor Takes Place of House Cat in Some Mexican Households, and Does Well.

In Sinalea, on the west coast of Mexico, is the old town of Mazatlan, which, because of its position as a port of entry, has an interesting history of various and numerous bombardments which took place during the never-ending revolutions in Mexico.

"Mazatlan," translated, means the "place of the deer." It could well be called "the place of the parrot." For these beautiful birds are sold along the sidewalk by peddlers. On the swinging doors of the hotel—if one can dignify the lodging house with such a name—is invariably seen a grave parrot, sitting, like a magistrate, and passing judgment on the passers-by.

But this is not the only representative of the animal kingdom in the hostelry. For it boasts of a ten-foot boa-constructor, which hangs lazily from the ceiling or is curled up in a corner. Here the boa-constructor is the mouser. The Mexicans use it with great success in place of the ordinary house cat. And it is no more dangerous than a pussy kitten. The snakes are faithful in their work and take the entire responsibility themselves of killing off rats. For if a rat is found in their territory they take the precaution of removing any rivals in their art by first eating the rat.

Pity the Modern Baby.

Despite the fact that the modern baby drives on what science does for him today, it's a big job to be a baby.

Just when baby is kicking his little pink toes and making an effort to count the funny stitches on his new white crib quilt, a some one comes along and says: "It's time to take the baby to the doctor," or "It's time for his weighing or measuring," or "It's time to try out his new diet," and just when he's getting ready to close his eyes for a nice long nap some one comes along and says: "It's time to give the baby his tomato juice," and what baby in the world ever likes the taste of tomatoes?

There's a million things science puts over on the baby today when baby is absolutely helpless to prevent the experiment. He may holler his little lungs out, but it doesn't do a bit of good, as crying causes much less concern than it used to, for the baby these days needs exercise for his lungs and he needs much more discipline than he used to. That's what science thinks.—Minneapolis News.

Too Good to Lose.

The story is told that one of the examiners in a certain school was accosted by the athletic coach.

"If you please, sir," he began, "there are two splendid fellows on the football team."

"Now stop," said the professor, severely. "If you want to ask me to pass these boys, who have flunked their examinations, I refuse absolutely. There's been—"

"No, sir; no, sir," hurriedly interrupted the petitioner; "it's just the other way. They're such brilliant students that I wanted to beg you to make them flunk, so that we could keep them for another year."—Columbia (S. C.) State.

Also he related a number of anecdotes about the same timorous swains. The visitor thought the arrangement a good one.

"Then she helps business in engagement rings?"

"Very much. Weighs a big one herself."

OLD PHYSICIAN NO FOOL

Devised Compound Which Really Had Good Effects on Those Suffering From Tuberculosis.

Avicenna, famous ancient Arab physician, invented a medicine which he recommended in tuberculous cases. Its name was djen-jubine, but its component parts, honey and red roses, have a more delectable suggestion. The roses were preserved in honey, and Avicenna's testimony was, after many experiments, that the mixture reduced expectation and caused the patient to gain weight and appetite. The ancient physician attributed the effect to tannin and sugar, both of which have a favorable influence on tuberculosis, he said. Presumably tannin is an element in rose leaves, according to this, but who would have thought it? Yet, who would not willingly accept a rose leaf and honey remedy for any disease?

A grandmother's cure for coughs and sore throat was once upon a time composed of honey and butter melted together with an admixture of horseradish, and administered to entirely willing youthful patients. Did the prescription of the ancient Arab come down the centuries, modified along the way? Rose leaves would be better than horseradish, perhaps. But grandmother's cures are spoken of lightly by doctors in these days. The grandmothers did not know, they say. But often than not, the children got well.—Exchange.

ALL FEAR THE CROCODILE

African Beast Said to Be Ready to Attack Almost Any Animal Within Its Reach.

The most dangerous African animal, according to Major J. Stevenson-Hamilton, in his "Animal Life in Africa," is the crocodile. This saurian attacks any beast within reach save the elephant and hippo. Even the rhinoceros is sometimes pulled down by it. It is not safe on crocodile-infested rivers for a man to stand within three feet of the edge, for by a deft and sudden blow the crocodile may knock him in. Having drowned his victim, the crocodile places him in warm storage on some ledge he low water level until the food he comes ripe enough to suit his taste.

At one spot on the Zambezi a chief who lived a generation ago used to take great delight in watching slaves and criminals being thrown to the crocodiles. His chair brought down to the bank in the cool of the afternoon, the chief might enjoy the fun in comfort. The crocodile there never forgot those happy days, and until recently it was almost certain death for anyone to try to draw water there.

Sensible Laws Regarding Food.

Among Hindus, where the house hold cooking is not entirely performed by the mistress of the house, it is the sacred duty and privilege of a wife to prepare and serve her husband's food. A Brahman cook may be employed even by a man of low caste, but in such a case no member of the household dare defile the kitchen by entering it. The Brahman, moreover, will bathe before preparing each meal. All food is freshly prepared, and nothing is served a second time. In all such rules as these there are strong ramparts against contamination—a protection from disease and the many deaths that pursue unwise physical habits. The laws regarding food, though set forth in severe religious formulae, are a form of science governing health and economics.—Asia Magazine.

No Place Like It.

When a native of Prince Edward Island had sailed forth to see the world, he engaged a room at a modest hotel in Boston, intending to remain there while he hunted for work.

"Will you register?" asked the clerk, handing him a pen.

"Register?" said the traveler. "What's that?"

"Write your name."

"What for?"

"We are required to keep a record of all our guests."

The man wrote his name and was about to lay down the pen when the clerk added:

"Now the place, if you please."

"What place?"

"The place you came from. Where do you live?"

"I live on the island."

"Well, but what island?"

The other looked at him in amazement. Then he said, with an emphasis that left no doubt of his feelings, "Prince Edward Island, man. What other island is there?"

FINAL FINDING IN SCOTT LAND CASE

Issues Have Been Pending in Supreme Court for Period of Years—Farm Near Waverly Basis of Proceeding

While frequently cases pass thru the supreme court of Illinois in a comparatively short time, there are other cases that remain upon the docket thru a period of years. This was true of the Scott land case, which has been pending in the court for the last five or six years, and in which a finding has just been made.

Mrs. Mary Jane Scott and other persons mentioned in the proceedings were at the time the original suit was filed residents of Waverly and the 340 acres of land involved is in Sangamon county, a few miles from Waverly.

The original suit which asked for partition of the land was filed in Sangamon county. The suit was based upon the presumption that Mrs. Mary Scott was the owner of one-half the land and that the other half is the property of Harold, Florence, Francis and Stuart Scott, who were mentioned as minor defendants. This original bill was filed a August, 1918, and it was shown that the land in question originally belonged to Samuel Jayins, who died in 1893, and who was the father of Mrs. Scott. As indicated, by decree of the court, 340 acres were set off to Mrs. Scott and her only child, Larry E. Scott, who subsequently died and left as his heirs and four minor children already mentioned.

Special Writ Issued

After this finding Templeman & Hopper as attorneys for the minor defendants, secured a special writ from the supreme court seeking to have the original decree of partition set aside, claiming that the children were entitled to the entire property, subject to the life interest of her grandmother instead of owning simply a half interest in the property.

This rehearing was granted and the case continued in the courts. Florence, one of the minor children, became of age, and filed a disclaimer and refused to continue a party to the suit. Still later Harold and Francis became of age and pleas of release of error were filed in their behalf.

The situation then developed that Stuart Scott was the only one of the heirs whose exact relationship to the property had not been finally determined. During this week after the years of litigation the supreme court has by its finding upheld the original decree of partition and the effect is to find that Mrs. Scott owned a half interest in the land and the four heirs of Harry E. Scott the other half.

Mrs. Marie C. Mason as administratrix of the estate of William H. Mason, was a party to the proceeding from the fact that Mr. Mason had a mortgage of $14,000 on the land.

Another Morgan county person interested in the proceeding was F. H. Wemple, who was executor and trustee named in the Jayins will, and who subsequently sold part of the property in accordance with the power given him by the will.

Other Titles

Some special interest attached to the suit in Sangamon county from the fact that Mr. Jayins owned about 700 acres of land which was bequeathed in trust to Mr. Wemple, the income to be paid to Mrs. Scott and her sister, Mrs. Martha Coe of Springfield, during their lifetime, and upon their deaths the property was to be divided among the heirs. Had the claim made for the minor heirs of Harry Scott been upheld the title to certain lands owned by Mrs. Coe would have been in jeopardy.

In the original suit filed in Sangamon county Mrs. Scott was represented by Stevens & Herndon of Springfield and subsequently Judge E. P. Brockhouse of Jacksonville represented Mrs. Scott's interest in the supreme court, Wilson & Butler appearing on behalf of Mrs. Mason.

The court in issuing the finding made reference to the long period during which the matter has been pending.

Springfield, Ill. — "Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an excellent building tonic for weak women. I was all run down, was very weak and nervous, had no appetite and my nerves were so bad I could not sleep. I had no ambition, never seemed to get rested or have any strength. I had been advised to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription so I decided to give it a trial and I was completely restored to health and strength. I felt like a new woman after taking the Prescription and I always advocate the use of this medicine to those whom I find failing." — Mrs. Anna Lanier, 1322 East N. Grand Ave.

FLOOD SITUATION IN MANITOBA IS STILL DANGEROUS

Many Families Forced to Leave Their Homes By Waters

(By The Associated Press)
WINNIPEG, Man., April 20. — With many districts in Central Southern Manitoba reporting a steady rise in the Assiniboine and Red rivers and tributaries during the night, the flood situation showed no improvement today. Many families have been forced to leave their homes, others are isolated from nearby towns by lakes of water and thousands of acres of farm land in the low lying districts have been inundated. A few districts reported conditions slightly improved today with the waters receding very slowly. Some improvement is looked for as the ice is showing signs of breaking up and going out, and the situation will be aided materially should this occur. The most serious condition exists at Brandon where hundreds of residents living in the section of the city known as the flats have been forced to vacate their homes while others virtually surrounded by the fast rising waters, are making preparations to get to safety. In Winnipeg the Red river continued to rise during the night going up three and a half feet in the past twelve hours, but some improvement is looked for as the ice has broke at St. Andrews locks, twenty miles north of the city and the river is open for a mile along the banks in Winnipeg.

OMEN IN VISIT OF SNAKE

Reptile's Appearance in Seminole Indian Council Induced Tribe to Accept Government's Offer.

Old Indians relate that in the deliberations which led to the emigration from the Florida lands to their home in the West, the Seminole chieftains were still stubborn and rebellious, and the sentiment was entirely against accepting the proposition of the government. At this time a large snake entered into the council grounds and slowly coiled himself and looked around upon the gathered tribesmen, as though beseeching them to take counsel of his movements. For a short time he remained, and then slowly uncoiled himself and leisurely took himself to the westward.
This was taken as an omen by the chiefs and the medicine men, and up a vote being taken it was unanimously voted to accept the terms of the government and go westward as required. Thus many lives and much expense were saved.
Another curious legend among the very old men is that the "Mungles," the redskins, will come to the aid and help the Seminoles to gain their lost lands. This came about probably on account of some old promise made by the British during the fighting days of the Revolution or the War of 1812. And even as late as the Green Beach war, in the early days of the Seminole war, the old Seminoles proclaimed that the great war had come and that the "Mungles" were coming with great guns to aid the Seminoles in whipping the white man and regaining their lost lands.

SNAKE IS FINE MOUSER

Boa-Constrictor Takes Place of House Cat in Some Mexican Households, and Does Well.

In Sinaloa, on the west coast of Mexico, is the old town of Mazatlan, which, because of its position as a port of entry, has an interesting history of various and numerous bombardments which took place during the never-ending revolutions in Mexico.
"Mazatlan," translated, means the "place of the deer." It could well be called "the place of the parrot." For these beautiful birds are sold along the sidewalks by peddlers. On the swinging doors of the hotel if one can identify the lodging house with such a name is invariably seen a grave parrot, sitting like a magistrate, and passing judgment on the passers-by.
But this is not the only representative of the animal kingdom in the hostelry. For it boasts of a ten-foot boa-constrictor, which hangs lazily from the ceiling or is curled up in a corner. Here the boa-constrictor is the mouser. The Mexicans use it with great success in place of the ordinary house cat. And it is no more dangerous than pussy herself. The snakes are faithful in their work and take the entire responsibility themselves of killing off rats. They eat them up and their territory they take the protection of moving any rivals in their art by first eating the cat.

Pity the Modern Baby.
Despite the fact that the modern baby thrives on what science does for him today, it's a big job to be a baby.

Just when baby is kicking his little pink toes and making an effort to count the funny stitches on his new white cloth, a some one comes along and says: "It's time to take the baby to the doctor." "It's time for his weighing or measuring," or "It's time to take his temperature," or "It's time to try out his new diet," and just when he's getting ready to close his eyes for a nice long nap some one comes along and says: "It's time to give the baby his tomato juice," and what baby in the world ever likes the taste of tomatoes?
There's a million things science puts over on the baby today when baby is absolutely helpless to prevent the experiment. He may holler his little lungs out, but it doesn't do a bit of good, as crying causes much less concern than it used to. For the baby these days needs exercise for his lungs and he needs much more discipline than he used to. That's what science thinks.—Minneapolis News.

Too Good to Lose.
The story is told that one of the examiners in a certain school was accosted by the athletic coach.
"If you please, sir," he began, "there are two splendid fellows on the football team."
"Now stop," said the professor, severely. "If you want to ask me to pass these boys, who have flunked their examinations, just because they are good athletes, I refuse absolutely. There's been—"
"No, sir; no, sir," hurriedly interrupted the petitioner; "It's just the other way. They're such brilliant students that I want to keep you make them flunk, so that we could keep them for another year."—Columbia (S. C.) State.

Tricks in All Trades.
The jeweler was showing an out-of-town customer around. There was an attractive girl behind the counter and the proprietor explained that it was her particular task to look after bashful swains who came in to purchase engagement rings. Also he related a number of anecdotes about the same thorough swains.
The visitor thought the arrangement a good one.
"Then she helps business in engagement rings?"
"Very much. Wears a big one herself."
Leaving Prints.
"Some men," remarked the admirer of poetry, "go through life with the idea of leaving footprints on the sands of time."
"Some do," replied the other. "And others are lucky if they get through without leaving the tracks of a pig taken."

OLD PHYSICIAN NO FOOL

Devised Compound Which Really Had Good Effects on Those Suffering From Tuberculosis.

Avicenna, famous ancient Arab physician, invented a medicine which he recommended highly as having healing properties in tuberculosis cases. Its name was djen-jubine, but its component parts, honey and red roses, have a more delectable suggestion. The roses were preserved in honey, and Avicenna's testimony was, after many experiments, that the mixture reduced expectoration and caused the patient to gain weight and appetite. The ancient physician attributed the effect to tannin and sugar, both of which have a favorable influence on tuberculosis, he said. Presumably tannin is an element in rose leaves, according to this, but who would have thought it? Yet, who would not willingly accept a rose leaf and honey remedy for any disease?
A grandmother's cure for coughs and sore throat was once upon a time composed of honey and butter melted together with an admixture of horseradish, and administered to entirely willing youthful patients. Did the prescription of the ancient Arab come down the centuries, modified along the way? Rose leaves would be better than horseradish, perhaps. But grandmother's cures are spoken of lightly by doctors in these days. The grandmothers did not know, they say. But often than not, the children got well.—Exchange.

ALL FEAR THE CROCODILE

African Beast Said to Be Ready to Attack Almost Any Animal Within Its Reach.

The most dangerous African animal, according to Major J. Stevenson-Hamilton, in his "Animal Life in Africa," is the crocodile. This saurian attacks any beast within reach save the elephant and hippo. Even the rhinoceros is sometimes pulled down by it. It is not safe to cross the crocodile-infested rivers for a man to stand within three feet of the edge, for by a deft and sudden blow the crocodile may knock him in. Having drowned its victim, the crocodile places him in warm storage on some ledge below water level until the food becomes ripe enough to suit its taste.
At one spot on the Zambezi a chief who lived a dangerous age used to take great delight in watching slaves and criminals being thrown to the crocodiles. His chair was brought down to the bank in the cool of the afternoon that he might enjoy the fun in comfort. The crocodile there never forgot those happy days, and until recently it was almost certain death for any one to try to draw water there.

Sensible Laws Regarding Food.
Among Hindus, where the house hold cooking is not entirely performed by the mistress of the house (it is the sacred duty and privilege of a wife to prepare and serve her husband's food), a Brahmin cook may be employed even by a man of low caste, but in such a case no member of the household dare defile the kitchen by entering it. The Brahmin, moreover, will bathe before preparing each meal. All food is freshly prepared, and nothing is served a second time. In all such rules as these there are strong ramparts against contamination—a protection from disease and the many deaths that pursue unwise physical habits. The law regarding food, though laid forth in severe religious formulae, are a form of science governing health and economics.—Asia Magazine.

No Place Like It.
When a Native of Prince Edward Island had sailed forth to see the world, he engaged a room at a modest hotel in Boston, intending to remain there while he hunted for work.
"Will you register?" asked the clerk, handing him a pen.
"Register?" said the traveler. "What's that?"
"Write your name."
"What for?"
"We are required to keep a record of all our guests."
The man wrote his name and was about to lay down the pen when the clerk added:
"Now the place, if you please."
"What place?"
"The place you came from. Where do you live?"
"I live on the island."
"Well, but what island?"
The other looked at him in amazement. Then he said, with an emphasis that left no doubt of his feelings, "Prince Edward Island, man. What other island is there?"

FINAL FINDING IN SCOTT LAND CASE

Issues Have Been Pending in Supreme Court for Period of Years—Farm Near Waverly Basis of Proceeding

While frequently cases pass thru the supreme court of Illinois in a comparatively short time, there are other cases that remain upon the docket thru a period of years. This was true of the Scott land case, which has been pending in the court for the past five or six years, and in which a finding has just been made.
Mrs. Mary Jane Scott and other persons mentioned in the proceedings were at the time the original suit was filed residents of Waverly and the 340 acres of land involved is in Sangamon county, a few miles from Waverly.

The original suit which asked for partition of the land was filed in Sangamon county. The suit was based upon the presumption that Mrs. Mary Scott was the owner of one-half the land and that the other half was the property of Harold, Florence, Francis and Stuart Scott, who were mentioned as minor defendants. This original bill was filed in August, 1918, and it was held that the land in question originally belonged to Samuel Ayres, who died in 1893, and who was the father of Mrs. Scott. As indicated, by decree of the court, 240 acres were set off to Mrs. Scott and her only child, Larry E. Scott, who subsequently died and left as his heirs and four minor children already mentioned.

Special Writ Issued.
After this finding Tammelman & Hopper as attorneys for the minor defendants, secured a special writ from the supreme court seeking to have the original decree of partition set aside, claiming that the children were entitled to the entire property, subject to the life interest of her grandmother instead of owning simply a half interest in the property.

This rehearing was granted and the case continued in the courts. Florence, one of the minor children, became of age, and filed a disclaimer and refused to continue a party to the suit. Still later Harold and Francis became of age and pleas of release of error were filed in their behalf.

The situation then developed that Stuart Scott was the only one of the heirs whose relationship to the property had not been finally determined. During this week after the years of litigation the supreme court has by its finding upheld the original decree of partition and the effect is to find that Mrs. Scott owned a half interest in the land and the four heirs of Harry E. Scott the other half.

Mrs. Marie C. Mason as administratrix of the estate of William H. Mason was a party to the proceeding from the fact that Mr. Mason had a mortgage of $14,000 on the land.

Another Morgan county person interested in the proceeding was F. H. Wemple, who was executor and trustee named in the Javins will, and who subsequently sold part of the property in accordance with the power given him by the will.

Other Titles.
Some special interest attached to the suit in Sangamon county from the fact that Mr. Javins owned about 700 acres of land which was bequeathed in trust to Mr. Wemple, the income to be paid to Mrs. Scott and her sister, Mrs. Martha Coe of Springfield, during their lifetime, and upon their deaths the property was to be divided among the heirs. Had the claim made for the minor heirs of Harry Scott been upheld the title to certain lands owned by Mrs. Coe would have been in jeopardy.

In the original suit filed in Sangamon county Mrs. Scott was represented by Stevens & Hernon of Springfield and subsequently Judge E. P. Brockhouse of Jacksonville represented Mrs. Scott's interest in the supreme court, Wilson & Butler appearing on behalf of Mrs. Mason. The court in issuing the finding made reference to the long period during which the matter has been pending.

FORMER RESIDENT BURIED AT WHITE HALL

Funeral of Herbert W. Pinkerton Is Held Thursday Afternoon — Other White Hall Items.

White Hall, April 20. — The remains of Herbert W. Pinkerton were brought from Wood River to Borden Thursday, where funeral services were held in the M. E. church at 2 o'clock. The remains were then brought to White Hall for interment in the White Hall cemetery.

The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Pinkerton of White Hall. He was a native of Borden, going from there to Wood River about two years ago. He had an attack of flu, but it was thought that he had completely recovered. An attack of pneumonia was the cause of his death, which occurred at 2 a. m. Tuesday.

Deceased was a contractor, aged about 40 years, and is survived by a wife and six children, the oldest 16 years, and the youngest about three months. The father and two of his sisters have died within the last eighteen months. Two brothers reside at Borden and one brother in Wood River. One of his brothers is known as having operated an oil wagon in White Hall.

The fire department has a call Thursday to the vulcanizing shop of F. A. Brooks on Jacksonville street. This is the second call this week on account of fire originating in shingle roofs, but the damage in this case was only slight. Fire Chief William Mace recorded the damage at $100.

Henry Schroeder of St. Mary, Mo., was a guest this week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schroeder.

The initial rehearsal of the local minstrel was held Wednesday night under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Littleton. This aggregation of black artists and fun mechanics are to be a part of the evening program in connection with the May Day festivities on Whiteside park. The rehearsal next week will be held in L. O. O. F. hall.

It is stated that W. A. Lewis has left Roodhouse and located at Portland, Oregon, as train dispatcher with the Southern Pacific railroad. He is well known here, and his wife was formerly Miss Gussie Denham of White Hall, daughter of Henry Denham. Mr. Lewis was "made" on the C. & A. largely at Drake and Roodhouse, and his friends are in a congratulatory mood over his good fortune.

Mrs. H. D. Staples of Clinton, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. O. Berryman in South Jacksonville. Mrs. Staples and Mrs. Berryman both spent the day yesterday with their mother, Mrs. Sarah Hill, who is 92 years old.

Mrs. Bess Haynes came up from Murrayville yesterday on a shopping tour.

EIGHT HOME RUNS IN CUB-PIRATE GAME

Cubs Make Six and Pirates Two—Hartnett's Second Smash in Ninth Wins for Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Eight home runs, one less than the world's record 29 years ago, were made in the final game between Chicago and Pittsburgh today, Chicago winning 12 to 11 when Charles Hartnett, recruit catcher slammed out his second homer and crossed the plate with the winning run in the ninth.

The Cubs made six of the homers, while the Pirates gathered two. The record for home runs in a game was made by Cincinnati and Boston in 1894, when Braves made five and Reds four. The Pirates used a trio of pitchers in an effort to stop the bombardment. Glazner, who started the game was nicked for four homers, while Hamilton, who gave way to Adams after Hartnett had cracked out his first homer was touched for one.

The veteran Babe Adams came in for his share of bombardment in the ninth, Hartnett bagging the homer which gave the Cubs their third straight game.

In addition to Hartnett's brace of homers, Friberg poked two, while Stutz and Heathcote got one apiece. Grimm and Traynor were the home run hitters for the Pirates. In the ninth inning with the score tied, Kelleher lined to Russell and Hartnett followed with the final smash driving the ball over the right field wall, one of the longest hits ever made in the Cubs' park.

WILLARD ON WAY TO JOHNSON BOUT

CHICAGO, April 20.—Jess Willard, former world's heavyweight champion, who is matched to box Floyd Johnson fifteen rounds in New York May 12, passed thru Chicago today on his way east to complete his training. Brought by his work in the open and hardened by many miles of road work over the foothills at Excelsior Springs, Willard expressed confidence that he could stop Johnson in short order and obtain a return match with Jack Dempsey in an attempt to regain his lost crown.

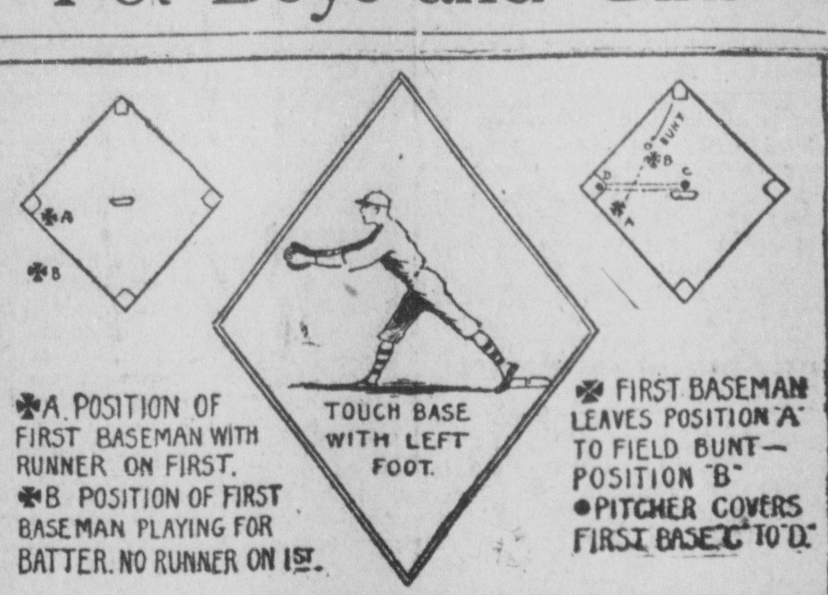

The former champion spent an hour at work in a local gymnasium and boxed several rounds with Harry Drake, English heavyweight, without any apparent signs of strain.

MALONE-DARCY BOUT CALLED OFF

Chicago, April 20.—The ten round match between Jack Malone and Jimmy Darcy of Portland, Ore., which was scheduled at Chicago for next Tuesday night, was called off tonight when word was received that Malone is ill with influenza at St. Paul and has a temperature of 105. The promoters are making an effort to obtain Harry Grab, former light heavyweight champion, to meet Darcy in Malone's place.

For Boys and Girls

BASEBALL—MORE HINTS ON PLAYING FIRST

(This is the sixth of a series of twelve articles by Billy McCabe of the Los Angeles Angels, formerly utility man in the National League where in 1920 he helped Brooklyn win first and only pennant. A good utility man has to be a real all-around player.)

Every position on the baseball field is well qualified to give advice to any boy learning to play baseball, no matter what positions he may aspire to. Boys who are interested should clip and save these articles.)

The rules a young first baseman should observe in fielding his position are not many, but extremely important.

One of the most important of all is to get the correct position of the feet on the base for a put-out. Nearly every beginner tries to touch the bag with his right foot, which is wrong. It forces him to cross his legs. He should use his left foot in touching the base to make a put-out. This rule is essential. Do not violate it. Get started right.

Learn Where to Stand

Each young first baseman should determine for himself where to stand in the field when there is no runner on first. A good rule is to play about 15 feet away from first base towards second; and about 10 feet or more outside the baseline. But if a first baseman is weak on catching grounders to his right, he should play still farther towards second so that more of the grounders will come to his left. Vice versa, if he is weak on ground balls to his left, he should play close to first base so that more of them will come to his right. Each player must decide on this point for himself.

The above, however, applies only to cases where no runners are on bases. If there is a man on first the first baseman should stand on the bag, ready to receive a throw from the pitcher. As soon as the pitcher starts to pitch, he runs to his fielding position.

Pitcher Covers for Bunts

When playing for a bunt, the first baseman should have a definite understanding with the pitcher as to who is to cover the base. Usually it is best for the first baseman to field the ball, throwing it to second base. The pitcher then runs to first to receive the throw from the second baseman.

A good first baseman should not neglect the catching of foul and infield flies it will pay well to practice catching fly balls.

Good judgment, speed, accuracy and calmness under all conditions are necessary at all times to the first baseman.

(Next week, how to play second base.)

LANDIS WANTS ALL BOYS TO PLAY BASEBALL

CLEVELAND, O., April 20.—Organized baseball must be supplemented with plenty of diamonds where all boys can play the game, Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis declared here today in an address at a dinner given in his honor by the "Stick to the Finish Club," an organization pledged to support the Cleveland Indians.

"Now if you fellows do what you say you are going to do—stick by the Cleveland Indians until the finish, regardless of what happens—I will come back here and tender you a congratulatory dinner myself," Mr. Landis said. He applauded the motives of the organization and turning to Tris Speaker, manager, and E. S. Barnard, president of the Indians, added:

"But what I want to be sure of is that these fellows will still be sticking to you on October 7."

Mme. Irene Pavloska, of the Chicago Opera company, pleaded for just as much support for American opera and musical artists as is shown to American ball players.

Mr. Landis left for Chicago tonight.

I. S. D. TO PLAY GAME WITH ROUTT HIGH

This afternoon, on the grounds at the School for the Deaf, Coach Burns will send his team against the Routt high school team in a practice game.

The boys at the School for the Deaf are all going good and Coach Burns plans to use as many of them as possible in this afternoon's game, to help him in picking out his first team, and to find if he has any real stars who have not had the proper opportunity to shine.

Coach Burns is banking very strong on pitcher Carlson, who is already in splendid form, and after a little more seasoning, he should be in a position to make serious trouble for any opposing team.

WESLEYAN DEFEATED EUREKA COLLEGE 9-5

Eureka, Ill., April 20.—Illinois Wesleyan triumphed over Eureka College in an Illinois Conference baseball game here today 9 to 5 in a contest featured by the superlative work of Johnnie Zinsner behind the bat and the hitting of Hicks and Borsch of Wesleyan. The score: Club R H E Wesleyan...9 14 4 Eureka...5 9 4 Corps, Borsch and Zinsner; Dennis and Whitler.

We are confident that the values we offer in base ball gloves cannot be duplicated.

CLEVELAND TRIMS WHITE SOX AGAIN

Make it Three Straight from Gleasons in Wild and Woolly Game—Lasted Nearly Three Hours With Only Eight and a Half Innings Played.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 20.—Cleveland made it three straight from Chicago today by a seventh inning rally of five runs, winning 8 to 5. Each team used four pitchers. Because of the wildness of pitchers and frequent changes the contest lasted nearly three hours, although only eight and a half innings were played. Boone was credited with his second victory of the year although only pitching two innings.

Commissioner Landis was a guest of Mrs. James Dunn, owner and President Barnard of the Indians.

Market Report

RAINS HAVE BEARISH EFFECT ON WHEAT

CHICAGO, April 20.—Rains which afforded some relief to dry sections of the winter crop territory had a bearish effect on the wheat market today. Prices closed heavy to 1c lower, with May $1.24 1/2 to $1.24 3/4 and July $1.22 1/2 to $1.22 3/4. In provisions the outcome varied from unchanged figures to five cents down.

Western as well as southwestern parts of the winter wheat belt received more or less moisture and the wheat bears put particular stress on reports that in the chief producing sections of Nebraska the rain amounted in places to fully an inch. Weakness in the market was afterward temporarily offset by a government forecast of 5 1/2 decrease in acreage. This report was in turn more than counter-balanced by a bearish view of the Kansas state replying that the Kansas crop is much more favorable than federal figures would indicate selling led by eastern houses found the wheat market without much support in the last part of the day. Some of this selling appeared to be based on estimates of a crop of 425,000,000 bushels for India as compared with 368,000,000 bushels last year, an estimate which in some quarters was expected to be followed by a downturn in prices at Liverpool, tomorrow, whereas the Liverpool market today closed at a material advance.

Government figures pointing to increased planting of corn and oats this season tended to weaken prices for feed cereals.

Despite an advance in hogs provisions were easy with grains.

WILLARD ON WAY TO JOHNSON BOUT

CHICAGO, April 20.—Jess Willard, former world's heavyweight champion, who is matched to box Floyd Johnson fifteen rounds in New York May 12, passed through Chicago today on his way east to complete his training. Browned by his work in the open and hardened by many miles of road work over the foothills at Excelsior Springs, Willard expressed confidence that he could stop Johnson in short order and obtain a return match with Jack Dempsey in an attempt to regain his lost crown.

The former champion spent an hour at work in a local gymnasium and boxed several rounds with Harry Drake, English heavyweight, without any apparent signs of strain.

EIGHT HOME RUNS IN CUB-PIRATE GAME

Cubs Make Six and Pirates Two—Hartnett's Second Smash in Ninth Wins for Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Eight home runs, one less than the world's record 29 years ago, were made in the final game between Chicago and Pittsburgh today, Chicago winning 12 to 11 when Chicago's Hartnett, recruit catcher slammed out his second homer and crossed the plate with the winning run in the ninth.

The Cubs made six of the homers, while the Pirates gathered two. The record for home runs in a game was made by Cincinnati and Boston in 1894, when Braves made five and Reds four. The Pirates used a trio of pitchers in an effort to stop the bombardment. Glazner, who started the game, was nicked for four homers, while Hamilton, who gave way to Adams after Hartnett had cracked out his first homer was touched for one. The veteran Babe Adams came in for his share of bombardment, in the ninth, Hartnett bagging the homer which gave the Cubs their third straight game.

In addition to Hartnett's brace of homers, Friberg poled two, while Stutz and Heathcote got one apiece. Grimm and Traynor were the home run hitters for the Pirates. In the ninth inning with the score tied, Kelleher lined to Russell and Hartnett followed with the final smash driving the ball over the right field wall, one of the longest hits ever made in the Cubs' park.

For Boys and Girls

BASEBALL—MORE HINTS ON PLAYING FIRST

(This is the sixth of a series of twelve articles by Billy McCabe of the Los Angeles Angels, formerly utility man in the National League, where in 1920 he helped Brooklyn win first and only pennant. A good utility man has to be a real all-around player. McCabe is. He has played every position on the baseball field and is well qualified to give advice to any boy learning to play baseball, no matter what position he may aspire to. Boys who are interested should clip and save these articles.)

The rules a young first baseman should observe in fielding his position are not many, but extremely important.

One of the most important of all is to get the correct position of the feet on the base for a put-out. Nearly every beginner tries to touch the bag with his right foot, which is wrong. It forces him to cross his legs. He should use his left foot in touching the base to make a put-out. This rule is essential. Do not violate it. Get started right.

Learn Where to Stand

Each young first baseman should determine for himself where to stand in the field when there is no runner on first. A good rule is to play about 15 feet away from first base towards second; and about 10 feet or more outside the baseline. But if a first baseman is weak on catching grounders to his right, he should play still farther towards second so that more of the brouders will come to his left. Vice versa, if he is weak on ground balls to his left, he should play close to first base so that more of them will come to his right. Each player must decide on this point for himself.

The above, however, applies only to cases where no runners are on bases. If there is a man on first the first baseman should stand on the bag, ready to receive a throw from the pitcher. As soon as the pitcher starts to pitch, he runs to his fielding position.

Pitcher Covers for Bunts

When playing for a bunt, the first baseman should have a definite understanding with the pitcher as to who is to cover the base. Usually it is best for the first baseman to field the ball, throwing it to second base. The pitcher then runs to first to receive the throw from the second baseman.

A good first baseman should not neglect the catching of foul and infield flies it will pay well to practice catching fly balls.

Good judgment, speed, accuracy and calmness under all conditions are necessary at all times to the first baseman.

LANDIS WANTS ALL BOYS TO PLAY BASEBALL

CLEVELAND, O., April 20.—Organized baseball must be supplemented with plenty of diamonds where all boys can play the game. Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis declared here today in an address at a dinner given in his honor by the "Stick to the Plush Club," an organization pledged to support the Cleveland Indians.

"Now if you fellows do what you say you are going to do," stick to the Cleveland Indians until the finish, regardless of what happens—I will come back here and tender you a congratulatory dinner myself," Mr. Landis said. He applauded the motives of the organization and turning to Tris Speaker, manager, and E. S. Barnard, president of the Indians, added:

"But what I want to be sure of is that these fellows will still be sticking to you on October 7."

Mrs. Irene Pavloska, of the Chicago Opera company, pleaded for just as much support for American opera and musical artists as is shown to American ball players.

Mr. Landis left for Chicago tonight.

I. S. D. TO PLAY GAME WITH ROUTT HIGH

This afternoon, on the grounds at the School for the Deaf, Coach Burns will send his team against the Routt high school team in a practice game.

The boys at the School for the Deaf are all going good and Coach Burns plans to use many of them as possible in this afternoon's game, to help him in picking out his first team, and to find if he has any real stars who have not had the proper opportunity to shine.

Coach Burns is banking very strong on pitcher Carlson, who is already in splendid form, and after a little more seasoning, he should be in a position to make serious trouble for any opposing team.

CLEVELAND TRIMS WHITE SOX AGAIN

Make It Three Straight from Gleasons in Wild and Woolly Game—Lasted Nearly Three Hours With Only Eight and a Half Innings Played.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 20.—Cleveland made it three straight from Chicago today by a seventh inning rally of five runs, winning 8 to 5. Each team used four pitchers. Because of the wildness of pitchers and frequent changes the contest lasted nearly three hours, although only eight and a half innings were played. Boone was credited with his second victory of the year although only pitching two innings.

Commissioner Landis was a guest of Mrs. James Dunn, owner and President Barnard of the Indians.

F. J. RAYMOND GIVES FINAL LECTURE HERE

Business Experts Tell Large Audience How to Get Results—Fifty Sayings Convey Thoughts to Hearers—Speaker Says Home Is More Than Money

The closing lecture by Frank Jewel Raymond was given before a crowded house Friday evening. "Getting Results" was the title of his address, and in it Mr. Raymond showed how to use what they have to get what they want.

The speaker said that, by acquiring knowledge of our own nature as we work we provide the wire over which comes the power of judgment, and we learn to develop enthusiasm, which gives us the voltage to get results. Mr. Raymond recommended the habit of gaining one new idea a day by asking a question concerning the business in hand and answering that question in as few words as possible. He told of his habit of acquiring a phrase a day, and his striking phrases, which fix in the memory of his hearers the thoughts which he wishes to convey. Here are some of Mr. Raymond's sayings:

Merely making money makes men miserable.

Fame and fortune favors the fellow fit to fight to the finish.

You can't stand still and stand a chance.

Think it over, put it over, and you won't have to do it over.

Your business is the gymnasium in which you exercise your mental muscles.

The speaker urged his hearers to avoid knocking the competitor's goods, to keep from shooting over the heads of their customers by using unfamiliar terms and to avoid misrepresentation.

He emphasized the point that when a salesman talks to a prospective customer, he is taking him for a walk mentally and should lead the customer set the pace, endeavoring to adapt himself to the other's nature and mental makeup. Personality, the method of approach and the ability to appeal to the customer thru more than one of his physical senses are necessary in getting results.

The speaker closed his address with the question, "Is your home steam heated or heart heated, emphasizing the warning that in the pursuit of success, people should not neglect the home and the finer things which can come from maintaining it intact. There is more to be gained than money, and if a man acquires sufficient money to purchase food, clothing, shelter and recreation for himself and family, he has achieved that side of success.

The speaker made a powerful appeal to the audience, that each should go on in the struggle for success in the work in which he was engaged. The same words which we use to encourage the athlete, the runner, the contestant in a game on track, gridiron or diamond, applies to the man in business and professional life. Go on!

FORMER RESIDENT DIED IN BROWN COUNTY

John T. Simpkin Who Passes Away Spent Many of Earlier Years Here.

Brief mention was previously made of the death of John T. Simpkin at his home in Brown county. The deceased was well known in Jacksonville and Morgan county, and has numerous relatives in this locality.

The following facts concerning Mr. Simpkin's life and the funeral services held last Monday are taken from the Mt. Sterling Democrat-Messenger:

John Thomas Simpkin was born near Griggsville, in Pike county, Illinois, November 24, 1845. His parents George and Mary Simpkin having moved to that place from Yorkshire, England, in 1840. Later they located on a farm one mile northwest of Clayton, Illinois. He was the next youngest of a family of nine children, all of whom preceded him in death.

In his early boyhood he worked on his father's farm until in 1862 when the country called for volunteers, he enlisted on the 13th day of June, as a soldier in Company C, Third Missouri Cavalry Volunteer and served three years.

On his return from the war he spent part of the time on the farm with his parents and the other part in Morgan county, Illinois, working out by the day and month until at the age of thirty years he had saved one thousand dollars which he placed in thirty acres of land located about two miles northeast of Timewell, Illinois, and which still forms a part of the homestead where he has resided since his marriage, on April 11, 1875, to Margaret H. Duglap of near Jacksonville, Morgan county, Illinois. To them were born four children, namely: Jas. Thomas, Jennie May, Hattie Bell and Mamie.

After his marriage he engaged in farming and stock raising and was successful in that industry.

He believed in everything that was honest and right and his faith in God carried him over all the rough places in life. He was converted in early manhood but never united with any church until January 24, 1906, when he became a member of the M. E. church of Timewell, Illinois, under the pastorate of Rev. Charles W. Monson, and has since that time been a faithful member, until April 13, 1923, about 4 o'clock a. m., the death angel called him from this life to the life beyond.

He had been in failing health for a number of years and since February, 1919, he had been confined to his bed. He possessed a cheerful disposition and fully appreciated the constant care that was lovingly ministered unto him.

He had expressed his readiness for the Master's summons, and in the presence of his wife and all the children and also his physician Dr. D. R. Peters of Mt. Sterling, Illinois, he peacefully passed away.

Now he is gone, but the memories of a kind and ever loving husband and father still remain.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Chas. W. Monson, a former pastor and close friend of the family, on Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the comfortable old home which he loved and where he had spent so many happy years.

A quartet composed of Mrs. John Jennings, Mrs. Henry Hatch, Otto Stuart and George Davis impressively sang "Nearer My God to Thee," "Sweetly Resting," and "Near The Cross," while Mrs. Earl Bennett presided at the organ.

The floral offerings were cared for by Isabel DeWitt and Mamie Jennings.

The pall bearers were Earl Bennett, Harry Primmore, Russell DeWitt, Don Brown and Chester Davis, and the remains were conveyed to the South Side Clayton cemetery to await the final resurrection.

The music and songs, the scripture readings from Psalm 23, First John 4:7 to 11 and St. John 14:1 to 3, the appropriate sermon the lovely flowers, and the many kind acts of friends and neighbors were very comforting to the bereaved ones in this trying experience, it being the first occasion when death had entered their home.

HOWITZER COMPANY OPENS ITS NEW HALL

More Than Two Hundred Attend Dance Given to Dedicate Armory—Will Give Dances Each Week.

The officers and members of the Howitzer company of the 13th infantry did themselves proud in the entertainment of more than two hundred guests who attended the dedication of the new armory on East State street last night. The courteous and manly actions of the personnel of the organization were such as should always characterize the true soldier.

Four hundred invitations had been sent out, but on account of the threatening weather earlier in the evening, a great many who would undoubtedly have been present under other circumstances, were discouraged from attending. The of the guests attending, however, left nothing to be desired to make the function a very decided success. The guests were of the representative people of Jacksonville, both in process and social circles.

The hall was beautifully decorated with the insignia of the historical Thirty-Third division, placed on a background of tastefully draped flags. Small balloons, filled with gas floated gaily about the hall room. The reception room contained large bouquets of roses and daffodils. Mrs. Charles Price, of Price's jewelry store, presented the officers and members with a large bouquet of hot house roses, accompanied by a card wishing them the best of success in their new quarters.

The large 50x74 foot floor was in excellent condition for dancing and Brown's six-piece orchestra was at its best while playing for the crowd that had assembled. The acoustics of the hall are near perfect, making dancing there an unusual pleasure.

Delicious frappe was served during the evening.

An admission charge was made and a handsome sum was realized which will be used to properly furnish the quarters for social functions and for the comfort of the members.

Among the military men present were Col. O. C. Smith, Jacksonville, who was formerly Judge Advocate with the Thirty-Third division in France during the World War, and First Lieutenant Harold M. Bigelow of Co. I, 130th Infantry, Salem, Illinois.

It is the intention of the organization to hold two dances a week, for the rest of the season, and any who attend need have no fear as to the quality of these gatherings.

SEALED VERDICT IN HAXTON CASE

Jury Which Heard Evidence on Liquor Case in County Court Made Quick Finding

The evidence was concluded yesterday afternoon in the case of Pete Haxton, charged with violation of the liquor laws. The case was given to the jury about 5 o'clock and within an hour a sealed verdict was returned, said Judge Samuell was not in the city. The verdict is to be opened in court this morning at 9 o'clock.

State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson presented the state's case and the defendant was represented by Walter W. Wright. Roland Morris and Alfred Leeper, who have been making some special investigations for the state's attorney in his effort to put a stop to bootlegging in Morgan county, were among the witnesses for the state.

Mr. Robinson maintained that thru these men he had ample proof that the defendant had been guilty of selling intoxicating liquor. The attorney for the defendant put these witnesses thru sharp cross examination in the effort to discredit them.

Still another witness for the state was Prof. Leavenworth of the department of chemistry at Illinois college, who testified as to the alcoholic content of samples of liquor which he had tested.

The jury included the following: George W. Siegfried, Charles James, Frank Ratachak, W. N. Bobbitt, George Florence, Stanley M. Post, Fred Hopper, John Hagerty, Simeon Fernandes, Charles McDonald, Curtis Scott and Charles Watson.

RAINS HAVE BEARISH EFFECT ON WHEAT CHICAGO, April 20.—Rains which afforded some relief to dry sections of the winter crop territory had a bearish effect on the wheat market today. Prices closed heavy 1/2 to 1c lower, with May $1.21 1/2 to $1.24 1/2 and July $1.22 1/2 to $1.25 1/2. In provisions the outcome varied from unchanged figures to five cents down.

Western as well as southwestern parts of the winter wheat belt received more or less moisture and the wheat reports put particular stress on reports that in the chief producing sections of Nebraska the rain amounted in places to fully an inch. Weakness in the market was afterward temporarily offset by a government forecast of 5 1/2 decrease in acreage.

This report was in turn more than counterbalanced by a bearish view of the Kansas state report, that the Kansas crop is much more favorable than federal figures would indicate selling led by eastern houses found the wheat market without much support in the last part of the day. Some of this selling appeared to be based on estimates of a crop of 425,000,000 bushels for India as compared with 368,000,000 bushels last year, an estimate which in some quarters was expected to be followed by a downturn in prices at Liverpool, tomorrow, whereas the Liverpool market today closed at a material advance.

Government figures pointing to increased planting of corn and oats this season tended to weaken prices for feed cereals.

Despite an advance in hogs provisions were easy with grains.
